Sept. 12. The king to the sheriff of York and all other his bailiffs, ministers and other lieges in that county. As divers rents in the city of York and elsewhere in that county appointed for the sustenance of a chaplain celebrating divine service daily in the chapel at the mills, sometime of the Templars, by the castle of York, which mills are in the king’s hands, are in arrear, to the abating of the divine worship, the king appoints Richard Squier, king’s yeoman, to levy and collect all such rents which are in arrear. The sheriff and others are to render every assistance to the said Richard Squier, whenever requisitioned, so that the said rents may be levied for the sustenance of the chaplain and not converted to any other uses.

John Mautravers and Eleanor his wife, staying in England, have letters nominating John de Cadebury and Maurice Pointz their attorneys in Ireland for two years.

Sept. 13. Mandate to John Abel, escheator beyond Trent, for the restitution of the temporalities of the priory of Chirebury to Philip de Monte Gomeri, a canon of Chirebury, whose election as prior of that place has been confirmed by R. bishop of Hereford.

Writ de intendendo for the prior directed to the knights, freemen and other tenants of the house.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the prioress of St. Clement’s by York and the nuns of that place by Richard de Freston of 2 messuages in York, and also by him and William de Freston of 5 acres of land in the suburb of York, and by Simon le Chapeley of 2 acres of land in the same suburb. By fine of 20s.

Sept. 14. Protection, for one year, without clause, for Nicholas Fermbaud, parson of the prebendal church of Westthorpe.

Membrane 23.

Sept. 14. Writ de intendendo directed to all tenants of the castles, lands and tenements, late of Gilbert de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, deceased, tenant in chief, in Glamorgan and Morgannau, for Bartholomew de Badelesmere, to whom the king has granted, during pleasure, the custody of those lands, so that he shall answer at the Exchequer for the issues thereof; and also as the said Bartholomew de Badelesmere is by command continually engaged on the king’s business and is in consequence unable personally to discharge the duties which pertain to such custody, for any deputies whom he may appoint and for whom he shall answer.

Sept. 12. Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the prior and convent of Boulton in Craven by Ranulph de Oterburne of 8 tofts and 4 bovates of land in Malghum, and which are worth in all issues 34s. a year, as appears by an inquisition taken by John de Eure, escheator on this side Trent, in part satisfaction of a licence granted to them to acquire lands, tenements and rents to the value of 20 marks a year.

Sept. 15. Presentation of William de Molton to the prebendal portion of the church of Wretling, in the diocese of Chichester, in the king’s free chapel of Hastings, lately held by Thomas de Redinges, which is in the king’s gift. By K.

Sept. 6. Protection without clause, for one year, for Robert de Bardilby, canon of St. Peter’s, York. Nothing is to be taken, against his will, of his corn, hay, carts, or other goods and chattels for the use of the king, or of any other person.