- Sept. 16.
York. Grant to Robert de Leyburne of all issues of the king's manors of Penreth and Sourby, to be received by him at the hands of the bailiffs of those manors, until he shall have received a sum of 599*l.* 15*s.* 3¼*d.*, being the balance of a sum of 1,096*l.* 16*s.* 8¾*d.* in which the king was bound to him, when he was constable of the castle of Are in Scotland, as well for arrears of the wages of himself and of others of his own following staying with him for the strengthening of the castle and for replacing his horses as for the wages of certain soldiers (stipendiarii) who remained with him in the castle for the same purpose, and whom he satisfied therein on the king's behalf. The castle and manor of Cokermuthe to the value of 130*l.* a year had been granted to him to hold until he should be fully satisfied in the said sum of 1,096*l.* 16*s.* 8¾*d.*, but subsequently the king committed that castle and manor to Edmund de Malo Lacu to hold for life, and by his letters patent promised to pay the said Robert de Leyburne before Midsummer Day last past the sum of 733*l.* 11*s.* 9¼*d.*, which was then in arrear as well for the said sum of 1,096*l.* 16*s.* 8¾*d.* as for the costs and expenses incurred by him, by the king's command, in the repair and improvement of the castle, as appears by an account thereof made with him at the Exchequer, or at another time to make him a sufficient assignment, of which above-named sum of 733*l.* 11*s.* 9¼*d.* he has been repaid at the Exchequer 133*l.* 16*s.* 6*d.*
