The king, under date of 2 March, 5 Edward II., in consideration of good service both to the late king and to himself, granted to Walter de Norwyco, tenant of certain lands and tenements, late of William de Rothingge and Ralph de Rothingge, in Bromfeld and Wenhamston, co. Suffolk, that he and his heirs and assigns might hold the same, as tenants of the said lands and tenements, subject to payment of 100s. a year at the Exchequer, on account of all debts in which the said William de Rothingge and Ralph de Rothingge were bound to the late king at the date of their deaths, viz. one moiety at Easter and another moiety at Michaelmas, until the said debts should be paid in full, and also that he and his heirs and assigns, tenants of the said lands and tenements should not by reason of the said debts be destrained upon in their other lands, or harassed by the king or ministers, as is contained in the letters patent. As a further favour, the king now grants to the said Walter de Norwyco and his heirs, tenants of the said lands and tenements, that of that portion of the arrears of the said debts, which affects them, they shall pay 40s. a year at the Exchequer, viz. one moiety at Easter and the other at Michaelmas, until their portion of such debts shall be fully paid.
