Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Master Nicholas de Tyngeswyk to John de Hoo, vicar of the church of Reculver, of a messuage in Reculver.

By fine of \(\frac{1}{2}\) mark.

Pardon to the abbot of Revesby and the convent of that place for acquiring in mortmain, without the licence of the late king, 10s. of rent in Fylingham from Thomas de Neville of Snyterby, tenant in chief, with restitution of the same.

By fine of 20s.

Licence for the master of the house of St. Mark, Bristol, and the brethren of that house, to appropriate in mortmain the church of Stokland, which is of their own advowson.

By fine of 10s.

Licence for the prior of Worcester and the convent of that place to appropriate the church of Tyberton, which is of their own advowson.

By fine of 10s.

Simple protection, for one year, for the prior of Wenlok, going beyond the seas.

Pardon to the abbot of Forde and the convent of that place for appropriating, after the publication of the statute of mortmain, without licence of the late king, the church of Payhembury, which is of their own advowson.

By fine of 20 marks.

Presentation of William de Herlaston to the chapel of Suthchiriton, in the diocese of Bath and Wells, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the lands and heir of William Russel, tenant in chief.

Simple protection, for one year, for the prior of St. Mary's, Carlisle.

Nothing is to be taken, without his licence or against his will, of his corn, beasts, hay, oats, carriages, or other goods, by the purveyors of the king's Household or other bailiffs or ministers of his, for his use or of any other person.

Pardon to Thomas de Hauville for acquiring in fee, without licence, from William Bate 6 acres of land in Hacumby, from Thomas Gerard 7 acres of wood in Hermethorpe, and from Adam de Monte Alto 11s. of rent in Morton, held in chief; with restitution of the same.

By fine of 20s.

Simple protection, for two years, for the abbot of Vaudoy, going beyond the seas.

Master Richard Bernard, parson of the church of Wodhille, going on pilgrimage to Jerusalem, has letters nominating William de Stryxtou and William de Clifton his attorneys until the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula.

Mandate for the arrest of all apostate friars of the order of Friars Minor, who having cast off the habit of religion and despising their vow, have become vagabonds and wander throughout the realm. All such apostates are to be delivered to the minister, keeper, guardian, or friars of their order, to be punished under the rule of the order.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by the master of the house of St. Mark, Bristol, and the brethren of that house to John, bishop of Bath