1315.

Membrane 24—cont.

Simple protection, with clause nolimus, for one year, for Adam de Brom, parson of the church of Handesworth.

The like for the abbot of Cumbermere.

Sept. 1.

Lincoln.

Appointment of John de Hothum, king's clerk, to supervise the state of the Exchequer, Dublin, and to view what debts due to the king are levied and what remain to be levied, and to certify the king thereof. By K.

Writ de intenendo for him directed to the treasurer, barons, chamberlains and other ministers of the Exchequer, Dublin.

Grant to John de Hothum, king's clerk, who is going to Ireland on business touching the king and the state of Ireland, that he shall receive his expenses which he shall incur on his journey to Ireland, staying there, and on his return, beyond the 40s. a day granted to him. By K.

Safe-conduct, for two years, for Asseretus de Portunare of Florence, going beyond the seas.

Writ of aid directed to the king's ministers in Ireland for John de Hothum, king's clerk, whom the king is sending to Ireland on certain arduous business.

Sept. 1.

Lincoln.

Protection, with clause, until Easter, for John de Burgo, clerk, going to Ireland on the king's service with John de Hothum.

Grant to the mayor and bailiffs of Hertepol of murage upon all wares brought for sale into the town for three years. By K.

See the appended Schedule concerning certain business of the king in Ireland.

Schedule.

Sept. 1.

Lincoln.

Power to John de Hothum to enter into agreements with those who had proceeded or were to proceed in the king's service against the Scots, who had invaded Ireland, to remit debts due to the king, and to dispose of wardships and marriages, which shall fall in, in such manner as shall be thought fit by Edmund le Botiller, justiciary of Ireland, and others of the Council. [Federæ. Parl. Writs.]

By K.

Power to the said John de Hothum to pardon felons, outlaws and all persons accused of felony or trespasses by the advice of Edmund le Botiller, the justiciary, and others of the Council, on condition that they serve the king against the enemy. [Federæ. Parl. Writs.]

By K.

Power to the said John de Hothum to remove insufficient officers from their offices in Ireland by the advice of the said justiciary and others of the Council, and to appoint others. [Federæ. Parl. Writs.]

By K.

Membrane 24—cont.

Simple protection, with clause nolimus, for one year, for John Stanyn and Hugh his brother, burgesses of Grantham.

The like for Richard le Taverner of Newark.

The like, without clause, for Roger de Sutheroxton, chaplain.

Matilda, late the wife of Gilbert de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, staying in England, has letters nominating John de Blebury and Richard Calf her attorneys in Ireland for two years.

Simple protection, with clause nolimus, for one year, for the prior of St. Leonard's without Stainforth.

The like for Nicholas de Ros, parson of the church of Offynton.

The like for the prior of Newstead (de Novo Loco) without Lincoln.

The like for Alice, late the wife of John de Drayton.