Grant at will to Edmund de Wodestok, the king’s brother, for his sustenance, of the manor of Asheford in the Peak, co. Derby, to the value of 80L, the manor of Kenton, co. Devon, to the value of 80L, the manor of Shaftebere, co. Devon, to the value of 22L, the manor of Brampton, co. Devon, to the value of 20L, the manor and hundred of Lyfton, co. Devon, to the value of 40L, and the manor of Chotecumbe, co. Devon, to the value of 10L; the lands and tenements late of Thomas de Wodehagh in Beseby, and other towns within the soke of Waltham, co. Lincoln, which as an escheat are in the king’s hands, to the value of 42L a year, and also 90L a year, which the abbot and convent of Kirkestal render at the Exchequer for the manor of Colyngham, co. York, held in fee farm.

By p.s.

Vacated because otherwise on the appended schedule.

Mandate in pursuance to the abbot and convent of Kirkestal to pay the said rent to the king’s brother until further order.

Mandate in pursuance to the abbot and convent of Clyve to pay the said rent to the king’s brother until further order.

Mandate to the abbot and convent of Clyve to pay the said sum of 18L 13s. 4d. to the king’s brother until further order.

Inspectimus and confirmation of a writing of John de Britannia, earl of Richemund, dated Boston, in the feast of the Conversion of St. Paul, 6 Edward II., granting that Richard, called the merchant, son of Thomas de Frampton, a free man (liberum), and the heirs of his body and their children of either sex shall be quit of all exaction of villenage or servitude. Witnesses: Sirs William Deyncourt and Bertrand de Montbocher, knights; Sir Adam de Linienistre, rector of the church of Cesterhont, clerk; Sir Thomas de Laug’, rector of the church of Croft; William de Sancto Petro and Aunfrid de Montbocher, esquires; Robert Cade of Boston, John de Stikeneye, the earl’s bailiff of that town, and William the Clerk (clerto).

By K.

Writ of aid, for one year, for the king’s servant, Peter de Monte Pessulano, whom he is sending to purvey and buy spices for the Household.

The like for William Pirye, purveyor for the office of the buttery.

Presentation of Richard de Bodekesham, chaplain to the church of Langunneth, in the diocese of Llandaff, void by the resignation of William, the late rector thereof.

Signification to R. bishop of Salisbury, of the revocation of the late presentation of John de Lavylton to the church of Melbury, in the diocese of