1316.

Grant to the prior and convent of Lenton of that messuage in the street of Mothalegate in the town of Notyngham, which the king held of the grant of John Brodleye, to hold to them and their successors, notwithstanding the statute of mortmain, by doing the services due from it before the messuage came into the king's hand, in exchange for a plot of land with the chapel of St. James standing on it in the town of Notyngham, adjacent to the area of the prior and friars of the Carmelite Order there, which the prior and convent of Lenton by their writing surrendered and granted to the king and his heirs, and which he by his charter granted to the said Carmelite prior and friars for the enlargement of their area.

By K.

Protection, with clause nolumus, for William Gregori of Queryngton.

The like for the under-mentioned persons, viz.:—
- Geoffrey de Edenhani.
- William son of Thomas de Gresseby.
- Stephen de Spaldnyngton.
- William Colman.
- Adam de Cokedale.
- Gilbert de Eborac, parson of the church of Bradeley.
- Henry son of Richard de Askeby juxta Horneckstre.
- Richard Lamker.
- Hamo de Northcotes.
- John de Loudham.
- Gilbert le Mazoun of Donecastre.
- William son of Hugh de Neuton.
- Alice Tuchet.
- Roger de Dalderby.
- William son of William le Clerk of Boston.
- The abbot of Waltham Holy Cross.
- Roger de Sutton.
- The prior of Cambryngham.
- Robert de Silkestone.
- The prior of Wyvelesford.
- Alan son of Athelm de Navenby.
- Philip de Kyme.
- The abbot of Fountains.
- Nicholas de Topclif.
- Thomas de Isham, parson of the church of St. Nicholas, Leindon.

Protection, with clause, until Whitsunday, for John de Kyngeston, going to Wales on the king's service. By testimony of John de Crombewelle.

The like for the under-mentioned persons, viz.:—
- Nicholas de Kyngeston.
- Thomas Laurence, going with the said John de Kyngeston.

Protection, for one year, for Nicholas le Pestur, yeoman of John de Merkyngfeld, king's clerk, carrying corn and other victuals by water from the church of the latter of Algorkirke, co. Lincoln, to the city of York for the sustenance of the said John de Merkyngfeld and his household.

The like for Walter le Chaumberlayn, yeoman of the same John de Merkyngfeld, carrying corn and other victuals to the city of York by water from the church of the latter of Estdraiton, co. Nottingham, for the sustenance of John de Merkyngfeld and his household.

Safe-conduct, for one year, for Nicholas de Toubien, king's merchant, going to divers places beyond the seas to make purveyance for the king's use and to execute other business for him.

The like for Anthony Udeemer and Serlo Pikamele.