

1316.

Membrane 31—cont.

certain canons of their church, which lane leads from the way of Estgate to Pottergate towards the south, viz. from the southern part of another lane leading towards Wayneswelle to the said way of Pottergate, for the enlargement of the said dwelling places, and for the security of them and of other ministers of the church. By K.

Feb. 24.
Lincoln.

Licence for the dean and chapter of the church of Lincoln, for the security of the canons and ministers of their church, to enclose the entire precinct of their church and a certain lane between the dwelling places of certain canons of the church and the gardens of the said canons, which lane leads from the way of Estgate to Pottergate, and which the king had granted them a licence to enclose for the enlargement of the said dwelling places, and also the said gardens, with a stone wall twelve feet in height, and to crenellate the precinct, lane and gardens aforesaid, in accordance with a like licence granted to them by the late king on account of homicides and other outrages committed in the street and lanes around the precinct and in the precinct of their church. By K.

Feb. 28.
Lincoln.

Pardon, at the instance of queen Isabella, to William le Butiller of Wemme and Ella his wife, Peter Dunnyng, Geoffrey, parson of the church of Prilleston, Alan Doreward, Thomas de Fynham, Thomas le Fillour, chaplain, William son of Roger But, John Clubbe, Symondesman Busshe, Richard Busshe, John Cok of Bedyngfeld and William Cok, for certain trespasses committed by them against Robert de Sefeld, whereof they were convicted in the court of King's Bench. By K.

Feb. 22.
Lincoln.

Licence, after inquisition ad quod damnum made by Robert de Umframville, earl of Anegos, keeper of the king's forest beyond Trent, for Walter de Bedewynde, king's clerk, treasurer of the church of St. Peter, York, to whom the king had formerly granted licence to enclose 40 acres of waste, by the perch of the forest, of the soil of his manor of Alne and Tollerton, within the metes of the forest of Galtres in places called 'Foxholm,' 'Fulwyth,' 'Mikelbush' and 'Tollertonemore,' with a little dyke and low hedge according to the assize of the forest, so that the king's deer can freely enter and leave it, and to reduce the same to cultivation, to hold to him and his successors, treasurers of the said church, to grant the said 40 acres to Alexander de Bergh and his heirs, subject to a certain yearly rent payable to the treasurers of the said church. Licence also for Walter de Bedewynde to grant to the said Alexander and his heirs common of pasture for all manner of animals and beasts in all lands, tenements, woods and places within the said forest, in which the free tenants of the said manor have common of pasture, to hold subject to a yearly rent. By fine of $\frac{1}{2}$ mark.

Feb. 14.
Lincoln.

Licence to Richard Pavel, prior of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England, to appoint brother Ralph de Castre and brother John de Cateral to be his attorneys, for two years, in all matters concerning the Hospital.

Feb. 20.
Lincoln.

Simple protection, without clause, for one year, for Peter Russel, parson of the church of Etton.

Feb. 13.
Lincoln.

Writ of aid, until the Translation of St. Thomas the Martyr, for Edmund de Wyndesores, king's serjeant, whom the king is sending to purvey necessaries for the office of the pantry of the Household, and to bring the same to certain places according to his command.

The like for the undermentioned purveyors, viz.—

Roger Pate, for the office of the pantry.

Robert Romayn, }
Ralph Spray, } for the office of the kitchen.