Confirmation to the abbot and convent of the house of St. Thomas the Martyr by Dublin of the charters and muniments touching the state and foundations of their house, which is of royal foundation. Upon petition of the abbot and convent praying for such confirmation, and, as their charters and muniments were, on account of their age, in so bad a state that they could not be transmitted to England, and also to avoid the perils of the sea and the dangers of the road, further praying the king to receive transcripts thereof, the king issued his mandate to Edmund le Botiller, the justiciary of Ireland, and Richard de Bereford, king’s clerk, then the Chancellor there, to inspect the said charters and muniments and to forward to him transcripts of the same under the seal used in Ireland, which was accordingly done, viz. of grants by the under-mentioned persons:

I. John son of Leonisius. [Printed in the Register of the abbey of St. Thomas, Dublin, No. xvi.]
II. Richard de Cogan. [Ibid. No. clxxxix.]
III. Richard de la Felde. [Ibid. No. clxxxv.]
IV. Basilia daughter of Gilbert the earl. [Ibid. No. cxxvii.]
V. The same Basilia. [Ibid. No. cxxviii.]
VI. William de Sancto Leodegaro. [Ibid. No. cxxvi.]
VII. Roger de Leycestre. [Ibid. No. cxxvi.]
VIII. Miles de Stanton. [Ibid. No. cxxv.]
IX. William de Druhulle, confirming the grants of William de Druhulle his grandfather and Thomas de Druhul his great-grandfather, of the church of the Holy Trinity, Dunmor with
