Membrane 23.

Aug. 25. Grant, during pleasure, to Robert de Felton, king's yeoman, of the lands late of Henry de Prendregest in Akhill and Yeure, co. Northumberland, in the king's hands as an escheat by reason of his adherence to the Scots. By p.s.

Mandate in pursuance to Robert de Cliderhou, escheator on this side Trent.

Appointment of John de Foxle, William de Bourne and Robert de Thorpe, to perambulate the forests in the counties of Somerset, Dorset, and Devon, such perambulations are to be returned to the king before Christmas, in order that the king may cause the same to be confirmed. [Parl. Writs.]

Dec. 28. The like to William de Hardene, Walter de Mollesworth, Nicholas Fernbaud and Gilbert de Holm, to perambulate the forests in the county of Rutland; the perambulations are to be returned to the king as above. [Parl. Writs.]

Aug. 27. Mandate to Master John Walewayn, escheator beyond Trent, for the restitution of the temporalities of the priory of St. Frideswkle, Oxford, to Robert de Turveston, a canon of that house, whose election as prior thereof, W. (sic) bishop of Lincoln, has confirmed. By K. on the information of W. de Monte Acuto.

Writ de intendendo in pursuance to the knights, free men, and other tenants of the house.

Aug. 24. Pardon to Hugh le Taillour of Hornse, for the death of William le Walker of Hornse, as it appears by the record of John de Donecastre and his fellows, justices of gaol delivery for York, that he killed him in self-defence.

Aug. 25. Appointment of Sir Robert de Fienles, as seneschal and keeper of the land and county of Ponthieu and Montreuil. French.

Aug. 25. Whereas on 30 ———, 9 Edward II. the king granted, during pleasure, to Joan Comyn of Boghan, the custody of the manor of Malton, which Isabella, late the wife of William de Vescy the elder, held in dower, and which was in the king's hands, so that she might receive out of the issues thereof, for her sustenance, 84 marks a year, and of the remaining issues of that manor she was to answer to the king according to an extent to be made thereof; the king now grants that she may hold the manor until she shall have seisin of her lands in Scotland, or the king shall otherwise provide for her state, provided that the manor remains so long in his hands. By K.

Aug. 26. Protection, for fifteen days, for Henry de Penebrigge and certain Welsh foot-soldiers, levied in the parts of Glamorgan and Morgannou in Wales for the hosting for the war in Scotland, whom he is leading by the king's command to York for the war with Scotland.

The like for Morgan ap Mereduk, for foot men levied in the parts of South Wales.
