1317.

Membrane 35—cont.

the last vicar thereof, and in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of London.

Grant, for life, to Richard de Gereseye, lately king's butler, of two tuns of wine a year, to be received at the hands of the king's chief butler. By p.s.

Grant, for life, to John de Gereseye his son, in consideration of the good service of Richard de Gereseye, king's serjeant, of the reversion of the bailiwick of the viscounty of the island of Gereseye, which the said Richard de Gereseye holds for life.

By p.s.

Membrane 34.

Writ of aid, until Midsummer, for John de Feriby, king's serjeant, whom the king is sending to purvey hay, oats and litter for the office of the Marshalsea.

The like for the undermentioned purveyors, viz.:—

John Sperman, William Lengleys, Richard Fristlyng,
Robert de Donecastre, Thomas de Stokes,
John de Sancto Albano,

to purvey hay, oats and litter.

Licence for Elias son of John de Colecestre and Juliana his wife to enfeoff Augustine de Woxebrugge, king's clerk, and Matilda de Rothynges and the heirs of the said Augustine of their manor of Laton Merk, co. Essex, and the advowson of the priory of Latton, held in chief as of the honor of Bologne, which is in the king's hand.

Jan. 3. Clipstone.

Licence for the abbot of Stratford, who has lately undertaken the burthen of the repair and maintenance of the causeway and bridges in the king's highway between Stratford atte Boghe and Hammestratford, to take sand and gravel at certain places in the said highway, and to carry the same to other places less deep, and therein to make a dry way for those passing.

1316.

Dec. 27. Nottingham.

Pardon to Aymer de Valencia, earl of Pembroke, king's kinsman, for his trespass in acquiring in fee without licence from John de Warenna, earl of Surrey, the castle and town of Castclere and the manor of Wyke, with demesne lands of the manor, as well with knights' fees in the counties of Norfolk, Essex, Cambridge, and elsewhere belonging to the said castle, which have fallen into mortmain, and with the advowsons of religious houses and churches in the said counties, the fees excepted which Richard Foliot held of the said earl of Surrey, all which are held in chief.

By p.s.

Confirmation to the clergy of the realm of the Articles of the Clergy, whereby divers liberties were granted to them in the Parliament at Lincoln, 9 Edward II. [Statutes at large, 9 Edward II.] By K. and C.

Nov. 15. York.

Licence for Edmund Gacelyn to enfeoff Ralph de Stakpole, clerk, of the manor of Chipham and the hundreds of Chipham, Bishopestone and Dynlew, co. Wilts, held in chief; and for the latter to re-grant the same to the feoffor and Eleanor his wife and the heirs of the said Edmund.

By K. on the information of Anthony Pessuigne of Genoa.

1317.

Licence for the friars of the Order of St. Augustine to acquire in mortmain, a plot of land to the extent of five acres in the town of Boston and to build a dwelling-house on it.

By p.s.