Oxegate. See Oxgate.

Oxemyre [co. York], 614.

Oxendone, John de, parson of Oveston, 338.

Oxeneford. See Oxenford.

Oxeney, de Oxeniaco, co. Lincoln. See Barlings.

Oxenford, Oxeneford, Richard de, 356.

Oxeney, Robert de, 581.

Oxford, earl of. See Vere.

Oxford, to assess the fifteenth in, 473.

Oxford, to assess the twentieth and fifteenth for, 51.

Oxford, to assess a sixteenth in, 529.

Oxford, to perambulate forests in, 296.

Oxford, touching offences of the king’s ministers in, 656.

Oxford, measures used in, 689.

Oxford, conserved or keepers of the peace, &c., for, 107, 129, 492.

Oxford, justices in eyre in, 429.

Oxford, gaol delivery for, 295.

Oxford, [alleged malpractices, or oppressions, &c.] by, 243, 408.

Oxford, to provide provisions for the king’s household, 155.

Oxford, Philip de la Beche, 243, 497.

Oxford, conspiracies and confederacies in, 409.

Oxford, the twentieth or fifteenth granted by the laity of, 270, 273.

Oxford, the king’s horses and stud in, 10, 93, 119, 369.

Oxford, forests in, 187.

Oxford and Staunford, Aymer de Valencia, earl of Pembroke, constable of the forest between the bridges of, 85.

Oxford, Alan la Zouche, steward of the forest between the bridges of, 85.

Oxford, and bailiffs of, to arrest transgressors when warned by the chancellor of the University, 321.

Oxford—cont.

Jews of, limitation of the rate of interest to be charged to scholars, 288.

houses inhabited by scholars, taxation of, 288.

Bruggesete in, 695.

Kyngesmedewe in, 116.

mills of, 116.

the Boy Mill, or Boymule in, 675.

North gate of, 367.

prison of, 367.

suburb of, 402.

St. Stephen’s Hall in the parish of St. Mildred the Virgin in, 367.

Suythegate, of, 367.

Rewley. See Rewley.

and University, charters touching, 288.

All Saints church, Master John de Northflete, parson of, 508.

St. Bartholomew’s hospital without, Peter de Luffenham, keeper of, 352.

Friars Preachers of, 115.

prior and priors of the Augustinian order of, 563.

prior and Trinitarian priors of, 110.

St. Frideswide’s priory, 508.

prior of, 116.

Alexander, prior of, 515.

Robert de Thurston, or Turveston, prior of, 521, 539.

prior and convent of, 87.

John de Aybydon and John de Sauere, canons of, 515.

St. John’s hospital without the East gate, 116, 206.

William de Oettlingtun, keeper of, 503.

Oxford, University of, complaint by the chancellor and scholars touching trespasses committed in the town, 321.

chancellor of; transgressors to be arrested by the mayor and bailiffs of the town at his request, 321.

chancellor of. See Hartelal.

composition touching degrees, 115.

composition with the mayor and commonalty, 266.

dissensions and strife in the, 1:3.

[Liberties and privileges of], 185.

grants for scholars of the, 115.

confirmation of charters of Henry III., 288.

clerks of, exemption from juries, &c., 288.

injury or death of scholars of, 288.

[Interest payable by scholars to] the Jews of Oxford, 288.

Bailiol House, grants to the master and scholars of, 130, 373.

Stapeldonhalle [Exeter College], grant by Peter de Skelton to the rector and scholars of, 367.