11. EDWARD II.—PART 1.

MEMBRANE 13—cont.

Appointments, during pleasure, of Humphrey Wace, clerk, to hold the office of engrosser of the Exchequer, Dublin, in the same manner in which Richard Broun, clerk, held it.

By K. on the information of Master Thomas de Cherleton.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Alexander de Bergh of 2 messuages and 6 bovates of land in Kirkeby Misperton to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the church of Kirkeby Misperton for the souls of Master William de Pickeringes, Master Robert de Pickeringes, William de Bergh, Bernard de Bergh, and Cicely his wife, and for the souls of the ancestors and heirs of the said Bernard and Cicely, and Alexander and of all Christians; and also of the like alienation by him of 2 bovates of land in Great Bergh in Rydale to another chaplain, in augmentation of his sustenance, celebrating divine service daily in the chapel of Bergh for the same souls.

By p.s.

Mandate to Nicholas de Acton, as the proceeds of the sale previously ordered of 300 quarters of wheat out of the victuals received from Anthony Pessaigne of Genoa are insufficient to pay for the carriage of the remaining victuals to Berwick-upon-Tweed and elsewhere, to receive from the said Anthony and sell other corn to provide such carriage, as John de Norton, king's clerk, whom the king is sending to him, shall order him. By C.

MEMBRANE 12.

Grant for five years to the bailiffs and good men of Drogheda towards Meath of murage, pontage, quayage and payage upon all wares for sale brought into their town, and also on wares passing through it. By K.

Philip de la Marche of Braynford going to Ireland to Roger de Mortuo Mari of Wygemoore, keeper of that land, to remain there on the king's service, has letters nominating Thomas Tornegold his attorney until Easter.

Richard de Sheffield, parson of the church of Wodemancote, going beyond the seas on the king's service in the company of Anthony Pessaigne of Genoa, has letters nominating Roger de Sheffield his attorney for one year.

Licence for John de Bosco to enfeoff Ralph de Sancto Omero of a messuage, 100 acres of land, 7 acres of meadow, 15 acres of wood, 10 acres of heath, 70s. of rent, and a fourth part of a messuage in Tolleshunt Tregorz and Blunteshale, co. Essex, held in chief as of the honor of Peverel, as appears by inquisition made by Master John Walewayn, escheator on this side Trent, and for the feoffee to regrant the same to the said John and Petronilla his wife and his heirs. By fine of 20s.

Writ de intendendo for John de Axebrigge, whom Richard le Mareschal, king's serjeant and panterer, to whom the king has granted for life for his sustenance the office of ganger throughout the realm, has appointed during his pleasure to be his deputy in the ports of Wales and the port of the town of Bristol.

Protection and safe-conduct for one year for Adam de Sumery, whom his brother William de Sumery, who is staying on the king's service in the Chancery in England, is sending on his business to Ireland.

Grant to Master Pancius or Panecius, the king's leech (Medicus) and clerk, of 25l. a year to be received at the Exchequer at Christmas so long as he shall remain in the realm. By p.s.