in 270l. 12s. 8d., and Peter de Cayron and Peter de Castelloun in 106l. 19s. 10d. for wines bought in the months of January, March, May and July in the tenth year of his reign, Gregory Blank’ in 211l. 18s., Peter Nicol in 35l. 18s. 8d., William Boudel in 36l. 5s. 6d. Auger de Tosse in 51l. 12s., Reynaud le Markarden in 51l. 18s., Vitalis Grymbaud and Arnold Remunday Ayken in 42l. 12s. 6d., John de la Toure, William Arnaldi de Portan, Arnold de Luk, and John de Racraun in 173l. 19d. for wines bought in July last past, Doncius Gitardi in 140l. 8s. 6d. for wines bought from him by Stephen de Abyndon, the butler, at Boston in August last, and to Arnald del Escuser in 8l. 12s. 10d. for wines bought from them in the same month of July for the king’s use, as appears in four bills under the seal of Roger de Northburgh, king’s clerk, keeper of the Wardrobe; and as the said merchants together with Gaillardus Gobel, Peter del Cosyn, John del Cosyn, Peter Massang’, Gaillardus de Garembal, Garsias de Lounon, John Douynhou, Ameneus de Besson, Vitalis de la Suede, and Reynaud Guillemi de Costera have undertaken to purvey 300 casks of wine, at 6 marks a cask, before Easter next for the use of the king and of his Household, the king in recompense of their losses occasioned by the delay in paying the above-said sum and also in consideration of the said 300 casks of wine, grants them 100 marks of his gift to be received among themselves according to their discretion, and further to satisfy them in the said 170l. 7s. 2½d., and also in 1800 marks the price of the said 300 casks of wine, and of the said 400 marks sterling, grants them 817l. 6½d. out of the first term of payment of the tenth, imposed by the Pope on the clergy of the realm, in the dioceses of Canterbury, Bath and Wells, Exeter, Worcester, Hereford, Coventry and Lichfield, Llandaff, Bangor, St. Asaph, York, Durham, Carlisle and St. Davids.

Mandate in pursuance to J. bishop of Winchester, and W. bishop of Exeter, collectors of the tenth, to make the above payments. By K.

Exemption for life, at the request of Humphrey de Bohun, earl of Hereford and Essex, for Simon de Radlesden from being put on assizes, juries, or recognitions; and from being made sheriff, coroner, &c. By K.

Pardon to John de Tockle (or Tokke), on account of his youth, for having, whilst he was of tender age, taken away a forcer with jewels contained in it from Matilda Trussel before she had been promised in marriage to Oliver de Burlegala, king’s yeoman. By p.s.

The like for the under-mentioned persons, viz.—

Richard de Thirlewalle.
Robert de Raschelf.
John de Layburne.

Grant in frank almoin to the Friars Preachers of a void plot of land in Wynchelse, which is called the King’s Place (‘Plaera Liegis’), containing 12 acres of land, with the descent of the mount adjacent to that plot, to build a church for celebrating divine service in, and also houses and building for the habitation of Friars of the Order. By K.