1318.

Grant to Roger Ardingelli, Dinus Foccetti, and Francis Balduch', and their fellows, merchants of the society of the Bardi of Florence, to whom the king is bound in 658l. 13s. 4d., viz. for 310l. 6s. 8d. and 818l. 6s. 8d., received in the Chamber by John Pecok, the elder, king's yeoman, that they may receive that sum out of the first issues of the custom on wools, hides, and wool-fells and of the impost for the export of those wares in the port of London.

By p.s.

Grant to the commonalties and merchants of Bleives, Seint Sever, Seinte Quitcrie, Bonegarde, Sonles, Lathbathal, Peresforate, Poillon, and Huyre in Gascony and to the merchants of Bordeaux that they may receive the sums in which the king is indebted to them out of the customs on wools, hides and wool-fells in the port of Ipswich. In payment of such debts the king had granted [Vol. 1. p. 60] to them the like custom in the port of Southampton, but later [Vol. 1. p. 77] by arrangement with Emeryk de Friscobaud and his fellows, merchants of the society of the Friscobaud, to whom he had previously assigned the custom, he granted them a moiety of the custom of Southampton; which custom, the Friscobaud having been repaid their dues, he has now assigned to queen Isabella.

French.

Mandate in pursuance to the collectors of the said custom at Ipswich to deliver the seal called the 'ceqet' and the issues of the customs to Reynund Armand of Montmauser and Reynund de Marges, the procursors of the said merchants, as the merchants have undertaken to satisfy the executors of Piers de Cabau in the balance remaining due to him of an assignment which the king had made him on the same custom.
