1318.

July 20. Grant to the priors and friars of Wytham and Henton, of the Carthusian Order, in amplification of the exemption from all manner of aids, tallage, &c. granted to them by the late king, of exemption from any tenth or other imposition, which may be imposed by the Pope on the clergy of England and be granted to the king. By K.

July 26. Writ of aid, until Michaelmas, for Andrew de Grantham, whom J. bishop of Ely, the chancellor, is sending to divers parts of the realm to purchase goods for the office of the poultry.

July 20. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by John Fillol to the prioress and convent of Clerkenewell of his reversion in a rent of 40s. in Manekeseye, which Joan daughter of the said John and Katherine her sister hold for their lives, which rent is held in chief as of the barony of L'Aigle (de Aquile) as appears by an inquisition made by Master John Walewayn, king's clerk, late escheator on this side Trent. By fine of 40s.

July 29. Safe-conduct, until Christmas, for John de Pulteneye and John de Hernestede, citizens and merchants of London, going with goods to divers parts of the realm to trade.

July 20. Pardon to the mayor and citizens of Dublin, who, during the late invasion of Ireland by the Scots and fearing that they might draw night to the city to besiege it, had for the safety of their city levelled and burned the suburbs, of that which pertains to the king for having so levelled and burned the suburbs.

Pardon to the said mayor and citizens of Dublin for having seized and carried away, to provision their city in case of being besieged by the Scots, the animals, corn and other victuals of many men dwelling near Dublin. By K.

July 29. A. archbishop of Dublin, staying in England on the king's service, has letters nominating John de Dene and William de la More his attorneys in Ireland for two years.

Aug. 1. Pardon to Richard Dammory of all trespasses of vert and venison committed by him as well within his bailiwick of the forest of Whitlewode, which he holds of the king's grant, as elsewhere. By K.

July 29. Writ of aid, until Christmas, for John de Mereworth, king's yeoman, charged by the steward of the Household and the keeper of the Wardrobe, to purvey necessaries for the office of the pantry. Nothing in the fee of the church is to be taken contrary to the liberties thereof.

The like for the under-mentioned purveyors, viz.—

Roger Pate, for the pantry.
William de Mildenhal, for the buttery.
John Pecok, serjeant, for the office of the Hall.
John de Aula, yeoman, for the chamber.
John de Carleford, serjeant, for the kitchen.
Robert Romayn, serjeant, for the kitchen.
John Goldeneigh, serjeant, for the sausery.
Robert de Hemelhampsted, serjeant, for the poultry.
Robert de la Welde, yeoman, for livery of the king's horses.
John de Somery, serjeant, for the scullery.
William de Watford, yeoman, for the sausery.
Master Richard le Saucier (Salsarius), serjeant, for the sausery.
William de London, yeoman,