1319. Thorescroft, co. York, from John son of John de Walkyngham, who held the same in chief as of the honor of Knaresburgh.

June 2. Writ de intendendo directed to the tenants of the castle of Buelt in Wales and of the adjacent parts for Roger de Mortuo Mari of Chirk, justice of Wales. Although the king had committed the said castle to Master John Walewayn, king's clerk, to keep during pleasure, yet because he wills the castle to be in his hand and in the custody of the said Roger and the issues accruing from the castle to be answered for at the Exchequer of Caermerdyn by the hands of the chamberlain there, he has commanded the said justice to take the castle into his hand and to keep it until further order; and he has also commanded the said Master John Walewayn to deliver the castle accordingly.

June 2. Exemption for life for Robert de Cantilupo from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions; and from being made sheriff, coroner, forester, verderer, or other bailiff, or minister of the king.

May 24. Grant, with the assent of the Parliament at York, to John de Weston, the elder, on account of his good service to the late king, of fifty marks a year for his life to be received out of the farm of the city of London by the hands of the sheriffs of the city until the king shall provide him with lands or rents to that value.

Mandate in pursuance to the sheriffs of the city of London.

June 4. Pardon to Thomas de Escrik, chaplain, of his trespass. He had been taken and detained in the prison of the king's Marshalsea for divers suspected letters and charters, sealed with the king's seal, found in his custody, whereof he was convicted as appears by the record of Henry Lescropc and his fellows, justices assigned to hold pleas before the king.

June 5. Confirmation to Thomas, now earl of Lancaster, of all his rights under the grant by Queen Eleanor, the king's grandmother, to the said Thomas and Henry his brother, sons of Edmund, sometime earl of Leicester, the queen's grandsons, of her portion of the county of Provence.

June 4. Protection for one year, with the clause quietus sit de placeris, for William de la Hulle, who with Roger de Mortuo Mari of Wigemore is staying in Ireland on the king's service.

June 5. Indemnity for W. archbishop of York, J. bishop of Ely, the Chancellor, J. bishop of Norwich, and J. bishop of Winchester, the treasurer, who had bound themselves on the king's behalf to Master Rigaud de Asserio, canon of Orleans, the nuncio of the Apostolic See in England, in 2,000 marks to be repaid at the feast of St. Martin in the Winter for the arrears of the annual rent of 1,000 marks due to the Roman Church for two years then past.

William, abbot of Grestain, staying beyond the seas, has letters nominating Roger Haleboursse and John Wyndas his attorneys for three years.

May 24. Protection for two years directed to the king's bailiffs and lieges in Ireland for the men, whom the abbot of Holmcoltran is sending with two ships to Ireland to buy corn and other victuals to convey into England for the sustenance of his house.

June 7. Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the abbot and convent of Fountains by William son of Hugh de Castelay of 2 messuages, and
