Membrane 8—cont.

1319.

for no short time, yet the king at the request of the Pope now collates the said Pandulf, who possesses the prebend by provision of the Apostolic See, to the same upon the resignation at the king's request of the said Richard de Cornubia.

Protection with clause firmae, until Michaelmas, for Robert de Melton, son of Richard de Waltham, going beyond the seas on the king's service with John de Neville of Stokes.

Pardon to Rithericus (Rethericus) son of John of 50l. out of the 250l. in which he is bound at the Exchequer, Dublin, for arrears of his account for the time in which he was sheriff of Meath in the time of Edward I and the king, and sheriff of Dublin in the time of the king.

Safe conduct for one year for Richard Fille, master of the king's ship called la Isabelle, and for the ship going on the king's business to divers parts.

MEMBRANE 7.

Pardon to the abbot and convent of Westminster for the appropriation by Walter, abbot of Westminster, and the said convent without licence of the late king to their own uses of the church of Morden by Merton in the diocese of Winchester, which is of their own advowson.

Appointment, during pleasure, of John de Donecastre to be a justice of the Common Bench.

Safe-conduct until Easter for John Junctim, merchant, going beyond the seas.

Grant for life to David Gogh, a Welshman, on account of his good service to the late king, of 60s. a year to be received at the hands of the chamberlain of Kaernarvan in Wales.

Grant as a further favour to John de Bermyngham (or Bermengeham), earl of Loueth, with recitation of grants previously made to him, of the cognisance of all felonies and trespasses committed in the county of Loueth before the date hereof, and not yet determined, saving the four pleas excepted in a former grant.

Safe-conduct for one year for Thomas de Melcheburn, king's merchant, going both by sea and land to divers places with his wares to trade.

Exemption, directed to the king's bailiffs and lieges in Ireland, for life for Richard le Blound, on account of his good service in Ireland to the late king, from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions; and from being made sheriff, coroner, or other minister of the king or his heirs in Ireland.

Protection for two years, with clause royamus, for the master and brethren of the hospital of St. Thomas the Martyr in Acon in the city of London, and their attorneys collecting alms.

Grant to John de Weston, the younger, and his heirs, with the assent of the Parliament at York, of all tenements and rents, late of Robert Martin, le Clerk, and John le Taverner in the town of Bristol and its suburb, which came into the king's hands as escheats by reason of felonies which they had committed and for which they had abjured the realm.