Membrane 21—cont.

1321.

Feb. 21. Notification to R. bishop of Salisbury of the royal assent to the election of Peter de Shirborne, a monk of Albodesbury, to be abbot of that house. By K.

Feb. 18. Pardon to John son of John Gobaud for acquiring for life, without licence, from Edmund de Coleville, a messuage and a carucate of land in West Bitham, held in chief as of the honor of Albemarle. By fine of 30s.

Feb. 20. Protection with clause voluntas until Midsummer Day for Master Henry de Cantuaria, going beyond the seas on the king’s service. By K.

Feb. 21. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by J. bishop of Norwich, the chancellor, to the priores and nuns of St. Katherine’s, Flixton, to hold in frank-almoin, of the advowson of a moiety of the church of Flixton by Bungeye, held in chief, in exchange for the advowson of the church of Helmyngham, which the said nuns hold in frank-almoin of Cicely, late the wife of Robert de Ufford, to hold to the bishop and his successors in like manner; licence also for the priores and nuns to appropriate the said church.

Protection with clause voluntas until Whitsuntide for Master Andrew de Bruges, clerk, going on the king’s service to the Marches of Scotland.

The said Andrew has letters nominating Simon Potyn of Roucestre his attorney for the same time.

Feb. 22. Writ of aid for John de Barendele, serjeant of queen Isabella, charged by the steward of her household and keeper of her wardrobe to make purveyance for her pantry and buttery. By K.

The like for the under-mentioned purveyors, viz.—

- John Curteys,
- Hugh de Lyncestre, for the scullery.
- Robert Tibetoft,
- Robert de Danehurst,
- William de Kenyngton,
- Ralph Spray,
- John de Wysebergh, for the kitchen.
- John de la Marche,
- Adam de Castello,
- William de Brideport,
- John Russel,
- Ralph de Wendovre,
- John Cosyn, for the saucery.
- William de Brideport,
- John Russel,
- Ralph de Wendovre,
- John Cosyn, for the hall and chamber.
- Ralph de Wondovre,
- John Cosyn, for the poultry.

Feb. 22. Protection with clause voluntas until Midsummer Day for A. bishop of Hereford, going beyond the seas on the king’s service. By K.

The said bishop has letters nominating John de Bromfeld and Walter Charles his attorneys for the same time.

The like protections for the under-mentioned persons going with the said bishop, viz.—

- Roger de Braynton, parson of the church of Aka.
- Ralph de Frotewell.
- Howel le Galeys.
- Thomas de Hompton, parson of the church of Ridmarleye.