1321.

Membrane 21—cont.

or processes to disturb Master Edmund de London, king's clerk, in his possession of the archdeaconry of Bedforde, to which he has been collated by the king.

Licence for John de Ferraures, a minor, to enter the manors of Suthho and Keston, co. Huntingdon, which are of his inheritance, in accordance with a covenant for the transfer of the custody of the said manors to him made between him and Hugh le Despenser, the elder; the custody of these manors the king granted to the said Hugh until he should have satisfaction of a debt which the king owed him.

Aug. 10. Westminster.

Brother Leo de Roma, master of the hospital of the Holy Ghost, Rome, staying in England, has letters nominating Simon Fulberd his attorney in Ireland for two years.

Aug. 7. Westminster.

Nicholas, abbess of the Holy Trinity, Caen, staying beyond the seas, has letters nominating Peter de Garraiz and Nicholas le Mouner her attorneys in the islands of Gernereye and Jeresey for three years.

Aug. 10. Westminster.

John de Hastynge, staying in England, has letters nominating John de Lydgote, clerk, and Simon Peres his attorneys in Ireland for two years.

John de Hastynge, William de Burboce, and Robert de Heyle, executors of the will of John de Hastynge, staying in England, have letters nominating the same persons their attorneys in Ireland for two years.

Pardon of the trespass of Thomas Romayn, sometime citizen of London, in making the following bequests in mortmain to take effect after the death of Juliana his wife, who survives him; and ratification of the same:

(1) All his tenements and rents acquired by him and Juliana, his wife, in the parish of St. Mary, Woolchurchawe, to the prioress and convent of Haliwele, to hold after the death of the said Juliana, and of Alice and Joan, their daughters, and of Cristina de Kent, nuns of that house, to find a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in their church for the souls of him and Juliana, and of their parents, relations and benefactors, and of Geoffrey lo Feryng and Robert Hanteyn and all the faithful departed.

(2) 6 marks of rent receivable from the capital tenement acquired by them of Roger son of William, in the parish of Aldermarichbirche, London, and from that whole tenement, late of Robert de Esthalle and Joan his wife, in the same parish, for the maintenance of a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the said church of Aldermarichbirche for the souls aforesaid, to be presented for this purpose by the archbishop of Canterbury after the death of John de Bureford and Roesta his wife.

(3) 14 marks yearly of rent, receivable from that whole new tenement which the said Thomas lately built in that parish for the maintenance of two chaplains to celebrate divine service for the said souls in the said church.

(4) 20s. alms to the archbishop of Canterbury and his successors, receivable from the said new tenement for the maintenance of the same chantries.

(5) 6 marks of rent receivable from all the tenements which they held in the parish of St. Thomas the Apostle, London, for the maintenance of a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the church of St. Thomas the Apostle for the said souls.

(6) 6 marks of rent receivable from the whole tenement, late of Robert Hanteyn, in the parish of St. Benet (Sancti Benedicti prope conductum), London, for the maintenance of a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the