1322.

Membrane 13—cont.

Richard de Lusteshull, parson of the church of Elyngdon.
John Martyn, clerk.
Walter Hakelute, parson of the church of Lampered.
The prior of Montecute.
John de Bousser, going on the king’s business to Wales.
John de Rishton, parson of the church of Adel.

May 18.

York.
The prior of Newenham.
The prior of Lekeburn.
The prior of Sloke by Clare.
The prior of Penewortham.
The abbot of Kirkesteal.
Alice de Normanton of Lincoln.
Walter de Belgrave, vicar of the church of Kirkston.
Richard de Emeldon.

May 20.

York.
Richard de Bello, parson of the church of Norton.
William Flemunyng, parson of the church of Fruinpton.
The prior of Birstall.
The abbot of Vale Royal.
Richard de Ardern of London, clerk.
The abbot of Langelon.
The abbot of St. Albaus.
Gerard son of Gerard de Braybrok.
Robert de Shireburn.
John Chaynel, parson of two parts of the church of Ripenhale.
Master Gilbert de Middclton, prebendary of Horton in the church of St. Mary, Salisbury.
Elin [blank].
Isolda, late the wife of William Ings.
John de Thoresby, parson of the church of Bramwyth.
Master William de Melbourn, parson of the church of Melford.
The abbot of Hepp.
Richard de Belhoues.
Nicholas de Holden.

May 20.

York.
Robert de Marchumleye, parson of the church of Great Billyng.
The same Robert.
The prior of Durham.
The abbot of Cherteseye.

MEMBRANE 12.

May 19.

York.
Grant for life to John de Somery of the manor of Amelcote, co. Stafford, late of James de Stafford, a rebel, in the king’s hands by forfeiture. By p.s.

May 20.

York.
Power, during pleasure, for Robert de Leyburn, knight, whom the king had appointed captain and admiral of the fleet of many ships from divers parts of the realm and from Ireland and Wales going on the Western Sea on the king’s service against the Scots, to receive into the king’s will all those of Scotland and of the adjacent islands, who are at war against him and wish to come unto his pleasure. [Faderas.] By K.

Writ of aid for him as admiral and captain directed to all bailiffs and others.
Writ de intendendo for him directed to the undermentioned, viz.—
John de Bernyngham, earl of Loueth, justiciary of Ireland.
Master Walter de Islep, treasurer of Ireland.

These were close. [Faderas.]