MEMORANDUM 5—cont.

June 27. York.

Notification to all whom it may concern that the temporalities of the archbishopric of York by reason of the voidance thereof were in the king's hands and custody from 6 December 9 Edward II, the day of the death of William de Grenfeld, the late archbishop, until 8 October, 11 Edward II, the day upon which the king took the fealty of and restored the temporalities to William de Melton, the present archbishop, as appears by the inspection of the memoranda of the Exchequer touching the caption of the temporalities, and by inspection of the rolls of the Chancery touching the taking of fealty and the restitution of the temporalities.

Aymer de Valencia, earl of Pembroke, executor of the will of Joan de Valencia, staying in England, has letters nominating Walter Curteys his attorney in Ireland for three years.

The said earl, staying in England, has like letters nominating the same Walter his attorney in Ireland for the same time.

Presentation of William de Werdale, king's clerk, to the church of Aberfrowe in the diocese of Bangor.

Aymer de Valencia, earl of Pembroke, executor of the will of Joan de Valencia, staying in England, has letters nominating Walter Curteys his attorney in Ireland for three years.

The said earl, staying in England, has like letters nominating the same Walter his attorney in Ireland for the same time.

Pardon to Thomas de Henton, treasurer of the cathedral church of Exeter, for acquiring in mortmain to him and his successors, treasurers of the said church, 21½ acres of land in Morkehall from Ralph de Morkehall, in exchange for 14 acres of land which he granted in fee to the said Ralph. The said Ralph may also hold the land received in exchange without being molested by the king or his ministers. By fine of ¾ mark.

Pardon to Henry de Glastyngbury for acquiring for life without licence from Thomas, sometime earl of Lancaster, 40L. a year of rent to be received out of the manor of Colyngburn, which the earl held in chief, and which by reason of the forfeiture incurred by him has come into the king's hands. By fine of 40L.

MEMORANDUM 4.

Protection with clause nolmns for one year for Hugh de Welleswik, parson the church of Hursleigh.

Pardon to John de Drayton as an adherent of Bartholomew de Badelesmere, a rebel. By p.s. Vacated because otherwise below.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Thomas Wake, the king's kinsman, of a messuage in the town of Neuton to found and build a religious house of whatever order he will, and for the assignment to such house, to be held in frank almoine, of a messuage and a carucate of land in Neuton and Cotyngham, and the advowson of the church of Cotyngham, which he holds in chief; licence also for the appropriation of the said church. By p.s.

Grant to Roger de Waltham, king's clerk, of the archdeaconry of Buckingham in the church of St. Mary, Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of that see being [lately] in his hands. By p.s. Mandate in pursuance to H. bishop of Lincoln.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by John de Horstede of a messuage, 80 acres of land, 4 acres of meadow, 40 acres of heath, and 15s. of rent in Nerford to the prior and convent of Westacre to find a chaplain