Membrane 28—cont.

1322.
July 26. Appointment, during pleasure, of Simon Belde to the office of comptroller of the king’s mines in the county of Devon.
Thirsk. By bill of the Treasurer.

Aug. 5. Simon de Abyndon, going to Scotland on the king’s service, has letters nominating John de Norton his attorney until All Saints.
Gosforth. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 27.

July 20. Appointment, during pleasure, of John de Wysham and John de Rithre to be supervisors of the array in the Westrithinge, co. York, and to lead the levies forthwith to the king, the Scots having now invaded the realm.
York. [Parl. Writs.] By K.

The like of the following:—
York. [Parl. Writs.]

July 15. Mandate to William de Beeston, John Tyly, Warin de Shargill, John de Smythhton, Richard Fauvel and John de Belton (sic), appointed to levy one footman in every town in divers wapentakes in the county of York, to execute their commission at once under the instructions of the above John de Wysham and John de Rither.
York. [Parl. Writs.] By K.

July 15. Licence, after inquisition ad quod damnum made by Master John Walewayn, king’s clerk, escheator beyond Trent, for the alienation in mortmain by Henry Spigurnel of a messuage, 40 acres of land, 1 acre of meadow, 1 acre of pasture, 20s. of rent, and a rent of 6 cartloads of brushwood, and a moiety of an acre of wood in Daggehale, held in chief, to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the chapel of All Saints, Daggehale.
York. [Parl. Writs.]

July 21. Mandate for one year to all bailiffs and ministers to provide carriage by land or water and safe-conduct for Gilbert de Wygeton, king’s clerk, appointed to make purveyances for the Great Wardrobe and to send such purveyances towards Scotland and elsewhere as the king shall order, or for Richard de Mountpeillers, his clerk, the bearer of these presents, whenever called upon to do so by them or either of them.
York. [Parl. Writs.]

The like in favour of the said Gilbert in conjunction with the following persons:—
York. [Parl. Writs.]

July 22. Whereas on 3 September, 5 Edward II, the king commanded the then senescal of the duchy of Aquitaine and the constable of Bordeaux to purvey for his use in the said duchy and out of its issues 1,000 tons of wine and to send it with all speed to London, and afterwards ordered Master Jordan Morant, then constable of Bordeaux, to expedite the purveyance and despatch thereof so that it should be delivered to the king’s butler at London before Christmas in the year 6 Edward II, in such manner as he should be told by Stephen de Berecote, the deputy of the butler, and that he should receive from the said Stephen letters patent certifying the cost incurred by him in the purchase and carriage thereof, for which due allowance would be made in his account;