1323.

Mandate to the canons of the free chapel of Hastynge to assign a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter to William de Clyfb, king’s clerk, admitted by John, bishop of Chichester, to the prebend of Crawhurst in the same chapel on the king’s presentation thereto.

Robert de Northburgh, staying beyond the seas for the sake of study, has letters nominating John de Burgo and Robert de Pontefracto his attorneys in England for three years.

The like for the following, viz.—
John de Degyn
Master Roger de Nassynge
William de Keythorp, clerk

Master Richard Wodeleok, clerk, staying beyond the seas for study, has letters nominating Luke de Barry and John de la Hale his attorneys in England for two years.

Richard de Grymeston, parson of the church of Styvelyngeflatt, going beyond the seas, has letters nominating Henry de Moreby and Nicholas de Moreby his attorneys in England for three years.

Robert de Kelleseye, going on the king’s service to the Islands of Gerneseye, Gereseye, Serk and Aureneye in the company of Gerard Hor[un] has letters nominating John de Pirle and William de Wellee his attorneys for one year.

Feb. 4. Norwell.
Bertrand Ferrandi, parson of the church of Rothewell, going to Gascony on the king’s service until Midsummer [the sentence is incomplete].

By K. on the information of Master R. de Baldok.

Presentation to Master Stephen de Kynardesleye to the deanery of the church of St. John, Chester, in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield, in the king’s gift by reason of the late voidance by the bishopric thereof.

By K.

Pardon, at the request of Edmund, earl of Arundel, to Hugh de MortuMari, late a rebel, of 100 marks of the 300 marks, wherein he made fine to save his life and to have his lands.

By p.s.

Feb. 1. Newark.
Protection with clause volumus, until Midsummer, for Robert de Calveton, taken by the Scots when on the king’s service and detained a prisoner in Scotland.

By K.

Presentation of William Seward to the church of Shireveneton in the diocese of Llandaff.

By p.s.

Feb. 2. Weston.
Writ of aid for one year for John de Whitechirch, whom the king is sending to purvey candles and other necessaries for the office of the chandlery of the Household.

By K.

Feb. 4. Norwell.
Licence for the abbot and convent of Borduseye to demise their manor of Holloweye to Henry de Hambury and his heirs for a term of 80 years.

By K. on the information of R. de Baldok.

Thomas de la Nye, John de Wermwelle and Walter de Kynarduslegh, monks of Glastonbury, bringing news of the death of Walter de Tanton, lately elected abbot of that place but who died before the temporalities were restored to him, have letters to the sub-prior and convent of licence to elect.

By K.