March 1.

March 1.

The like to Roger Beler, Hugh de Moygwill, Henry de Hambury and Ralph de Mountjoie touching the persons who entered the king's chases of Nedwod, co. Stafford, and Duffeld, co. Derby, broke his parks there, hunted in the said chases and parks and carried away deer and assaulted the king's foresters and other ministers.

By p.s.

The like to Henry de Cobham, John de Ifeld and William Wolf, supplying the place of Edmund, earl of Kent, warden of the Cinque Ports, on the request by letter of James, king of Aragon, setting forth that whereas Dominic Marrades, of his dominion, lately trading in Flanders, sent a certain common agent in two galleys of the realm of Majorca; of one of which William de Bona was master (patronus) and of the other Angelinus Escot, with divers cloths, silver, copper, tin and other merchandise, to the value of 610?. to the parts of the said dominion of the king, viz., to Francis Marrades, citizen of Valencia, brother of the said Dominic and his partner in business; and whereas whilst one of the said galleys was off Caleys and the other off Sandwich, divers persons from those ports and the county of Kent and elsewhere in the king's dominions with divers ships attacked them practically, seized the galleys and took them to the Isle of Thanet, co. Kent, and carried away part of the goods, and then took the galleys with the residue of the goods to Sandwich, within the liberty of the Cinque Ports, and there divided the residue of the goods amongst themselves, and having robbed the masters and mariners of their goods and clothing permitted them so to depart.

By p.s.