The like to John de Crombwell and William de Aune to muster at York by Palm Sunday the levies of the parts of Donecastre and the wapentake of Strafford, co. York. [Parl. Writs.]

The like to the following:—
John de Segrave and Robert de Manleye, the levies of the counties of Nottingham and Derby, except the parts of the Peak.
William le Latimer, the levies of the North Riding, co. York, except the parts of Richemundshire.
Thomas Wake, the levies of Holderness and the East Riding, co. York.
John de Wysham and John de Rithre, the levies of the West Riding, co. York, including the parts of Craven, except the parts of Donecastre and the wapentake of Strafford. [Parl. Writs.]

Mandate to Nicholas de Welgergrave, king's clerk, keeper of the abbey of Glastonbury, to restore the temporalities thereof to Adam de Sobbury, a monk of that place, whose election as abbot has been confirmed by J. bishop of Bath and Wells. By K. Writ de intendendo for him directed to the tenants of the abbey.

Release of John Botetourt from his bond for life to find for the king 20 men at arms to go on the king's service and at the king's wages wherever the king might choose to lead or send them. By K.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the prior and convent of Burncestre by Richard Serith of a messuage and 9 acres of land in Burncestre, held of the prior and convent, which are worth in all their issues 12l. a year, as appears by inquisition made by Master John Walewayn, king's clerk, escheator beyond Trent, in part satisfaction of their licence to acquire lands and rents to the value of 10l. a year.

Feb. 28. Knarlsborough.
General pardon to Ughtred de Geveleston, in consideration of the good news (rumoribus) which he brought to the king of the capture of Andrew de Harcla, a rebel; pardon also to him, of all trespasses of vert and venison committed in the king's forest. By p.s.

Appointment of Master John Walewayn, king's clerk, escheator beyond Trent, as receiver of all the manors and lands late of contrariants beyond Trent, which are in the king's hands by forfeiture. By K.

March 18. Blyth.
Writ of aid, until the king's return to this side of Trent, for Edmund, earl of Kent, the king's brother, appointed by the king as his lieutenant for the preservation and defence of the parts on this side of Trent against the invasions of the Scots and rebels: as the king proposes going South of Trent for recreation. [Parl. Writs.] By p.s.
The like directed to earls, barons, knights, keepers of towns, constables of castles, and other ministers and lieges.
The like directed to all commissioners appointed to array all men between sixteen and sixty in those parts. [Parl. Writs.]

Pardon to Ralph de Tyssyngton for his adherence to Thomas, late earl of Lancaster; with restitution of the message and two carucates of land with woods, meadows and pastures in the town of Claxey, which he had of the gift of the said earl, and which came into the king's hands as an escheat. By p.s.