CALENDAR OF PATENT ROLLS.

1323.

Membrane 21—cont.

Mandate to the constable of the said castle to deliver it to him with its armour, victuals, &c.
The like to Edmund, earl of Arundel, justice of Wales, or his lieutenant.

April 3.

Protection with clause nolumus for one year for Master John de Ros, parson of the church of Bishophesbourn.

The like for the following:—

Richard Frost of Suthampton.
Laurence de Dunolmis of Newcastle upon Tyne.
The prior of Montaeute.
Laurence de Rustiton, parson of the church of Hertyng.
John de Bruge, parson of the church of Heghardres.
John de Tryple.
The said John and Hugh de Tothill.
John de Marton, parson of the church of Westillebury, who is constantly attendant upon the king's business.
John de Langeton, parson of the church of Langeton.
Alexander son of Elias la Callere of Wallworth and Elias his brother.
Hawise la Converse of Oxford.
Peter de la Roele.
Roger de Drax, parson of the church of Saynesbyre.
John de Langeton, parson of the church of Langeton.
The prior of St. Neots.
John le Weydour of Northampton.
John de Langeton, parson of the church of Langeton.
Walter de Insula.

April 7.

Theobald de Goldyngton, parson of the church of Dale.
The prior of Dover.

Richard, parson of the church of Theiden Gernoun.
Andrew de Medestede.
The abbot of Humberstane.

Master William de Lubenham, parson of the church of Hargrave.
The abbey of Faversham.
Master Robert de Patrica, archdeacon of Stafford.
Roger, parson of the church of Saynesbury.

Master Simon de Mune, parson of the church of Bredon.
The prior of Lewes.
Robert de Aistleton, prebendary of Button.
The abbot of Greystain.
Master Robert de Hasel, parson of the church of Derham and prebendary of the collegiate church of Westbury.
William de Drax, parson of the church of Lambeheth.
Hugh de Notsyngham.
William de Loppedell, parson of the church of Selesye.
John de Boulewas.

April 1.

Grant, during pleasure, to the prior and Friars Preachers of Oxford that they may dig stone at Whateleye in a place called Cherlegrave, which is within the metes of the forest of Shotloverse, in the king's soil there in a space of 100 feet square, and bring the same to Oxford for the repair of their houses, in accordance with the grant to that effect made 9 July 32 Edward I. [Cal. Patent Rolls 32 Edward I, p. 238.]