Mandate to the steward of the Household to deliver extracts of fines, amercements, issues forfeited and all other profits belonging to the king from pleas and suits, pleaded before the said steward and the marshal of the Household, into the Exchequer twice a year, viz. at Michaelmas and Easter.

The like to the clerk of the market.

Mandate to the butler to observe the following orders, viz. wines are to be purveyed by testimony of good men of the places where the same are purveyed and such purveyances to be witnessed by the collectors of the custom, if there are any there, or if there are none by two good men of the said places. No customer henceforth is to be the attorney or deputy of the butler.

The butler and his attorneys are to cause all wines bought by them to be enrolled, viz. the number of tuns, from whom bought and when and by whose testimony, also in like manner all the wines of the king's prises.

Mandate to the keeper of the ulnage to deliver to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer extracts of his rolls twice a year at Michaelmas and Easter of cloths exposed for sale contrary to the assize throughout the realm, and thereby forfeited, where, when, and whose, and of what price, to whom sold and by what warranty, and of all other profits touching his said office.

MEMBRANE 1.

Presentation of William de Norwico to the church of Burgh under Styelmor in the diocese of Carlisle.

Vacated because otherwise in the 17th year in the same month.

Pardon to John de Holte for acquiring without licence for life a messuage and a virgate of land in Caune from the abbess and nuns of Shaftesbury, which are held in frank almoni subject to a rent of 6d. a year payable to the said abbess; with restitution of the same.

Appointment during pleasure of Richard de Musle to the custody of the castle of Pontefract, with the usual fee.

Mandate to William Grammary to deliver the castle to him by indenture with the armour, victuals and [prisoners] therein.

The like to Thomas Devill to deliver the castle to him.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the abbot and convent of Alnewyk by Gilbert de Otteleye, chaplain, of 6 messuages, 10 bovates of land, 4 acres of meadow, and an eighth part of a mill in Faloudon, by Robert de Sockepeth of a carucate of land in Alnewyk, and by Richard de Emeldon of 24 acres of land in Haysand, which are worth in all their issues 46s. 8d. a year, as appears by inquisition made by Thomas de Burgo, king's clerk, escheator on this side Trent, in part satisfaction of a licence to acquire lands and rents to the value of 10£. a year.