Membrane 13—cont.

In perpetuum and confirmation of a writing whereby Walter de Lacy, son of Hugh de Lacy, lord of Meath, confirms to the church of St. John the Baptist, Llanthony Priory, and the canons there, in fulfilment of the intentions of his father and for the souls of himself, his mother, wife and ancestors, all the tithes, profits and goods which his father, with the assent of the archbishops and bishops of Ireland with their chapters assigned to them out of the land acquired by him in Ireland, viz. the church of Calp, with the tithes of the ceyn warran thereof and of Dunneacharry, the church of Marinerstown (de villa Marineri) with the tithes of the fishery, the church of Anye, the church of Nalle, Clonalewy, the church of Garristown (de villa Oppary) in Meath, the church of Stathmolin and the advowson of the vicarage of Lillen, the churches of Killnessan, Kileudy, Delvane, and Killimesthe, the church of the town late of Reginald de Turbervill, the churches of Kilcarnain, Dunboin, Rathbegan, Kilbruy, and Drumrath, the land of Balbin, and the land which Gilbert Cornubici held in the honor of Rathouthe, with all the chapels of the said churches and with all the lands and ecclesiastical benefices collated to them in the land of Meath. Witnesses:—Robert de Turberville, Walter son of Alvred, Philip de Colcull, Simon de Tyleshop, Adam Fayel, William de Tregoiz, Henry Bradele, clerk, Adam de Notinghani, clerk, and many others. [Monasticion, Vol. VI, p. 188.] By fine of 40s.

Licence for Geoffrey de Morle to enfeoff Geoffrey Hammon of a messuage, a mill, a carucate of land, 2 acres of meadow, 4 acres of pasture and 2 sh. 6d. of rent in Nethercote, Aston and Leukenore, co. Oxford, held in chief as of the honor of Walyngford, as appears by inquisition made by Richard le Wayte, escheator in the counties of Wills, &c. and for the latter to grant the premises to Margaret de Morleye for life, with remainder to the said Geoffrey de Morle for his life, with remainder to Thomas de Morle in fee simple. By fine of 100s.

Pardon, at the instance of Aymer de Valencia, earl of Pembroke, the king's kinsman, to John Bond of Playnburgh for the death of Gerard Fraward of Playnburgh, on condition that he stand to right if anyone proceed against him. By K.

Licence for John de Mohun to enfeoff John de Durrebnrgh and Joan his wife and the heirs of the said John of the manor of Magor, which is held of him by knight service as parcel of the barony which he holds in chief. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 12.

Licence for Stephen, bishop of London, to take at will all the stags and hinds put by him within a close within the precinct of his manor of Southminstre which belongs to the said bishopric and is within the metes of the forest of Essex, or any stags or hinds fawned there hereafter. By K.

Appointment during pleasure of Adam de Helnak to the custody of the priory of Lanthony by Gloucester, lately void by the resignation of William de Gyadebury the last prior, as the goods of the priory are being dissipated by the discords amongst the canons, who having obtained licence to elect a prior, some elected Robert de Gloucestre and others Walter de Longeeye, canons of that house, and presented them both to the king. Although the custody of the temporalities of the priory in any voidance only belongs to the king in so far as that one man shall be deputed to stay there in the king's name with the sub-prior with two horses and two knaves if he wishes, without intermeddling with the inside or outside goods of the house, or wasting or