Protection as above for William son of William Porteref, going with William de Bello Campo.

Hugh de Courtenay the elder, going with the king, has letters nominating Hugh son of Hugh de Courtenay and Richard de Chissebech as his attorneys.

Protection as above for John de Herlaston, parson of the church of Normanton.

The same John has letters nominating Thomas de Cotyngham and Elias de Grymesby as his attorneys as above.

Protection as above for the following:

- Peter de Saltmersh, going in the company of Henry de Bello Monte.
- John de Lymbury
- John Turvill
- Simon Croyser

The same Simon has letters nominating Alexander de Stoke and William Trayly of Yevelden as his attorneys.

Robert de Insula, has like letters nominating John Blundel and John de Welleton.

John de Amwell, parson of the church of Westrasen, has like letters nominating Robert de Barton and Hamo Raven.

Master Pancius de Controne, clerk, nominating Peregrine de Controne.

Protection as above for the following:

- Oliver de Burdeus
- Henry de Bello Monte
- Richard de Hakenthorp, chaplain
- Henry de Ferrers
- William Marmyon

[Membrane 27 to this point is printed in 'Federex.']

Sept. 5.

Dover.

John de Amwell, parson of the church of Westrasen, has letters nominating Robert de Barton and Hamo Raven as his attorneys as above.

Robert de Kendale has like letters nominating Robert Bisshop.

John de Sancto Mauro has like letters nominating Roger de Sancto Mauro and John de Helpston.

Walter Bever, parson of the church of Hambury by Droitwich, going with Henry de Lancastre, earl of Leicester, has like letters nominating John Bever and Thomas Alyn of Droitwich ('de Wych').

Protection as above for the following:

- Master John de Shordich, going with the king's son Edward, earl of Chester.

The like for the following going with the said earl:

- Peter de Eketon.
- Thomas de Condray.
- John de Sevres.
- Robert de Echyngham.
- John de Melton.
- Thomas Corbet.