Membrane 22—cont.

Writ of aid directed to sheriffs, mayors, bailiffs, lords and masters of ships, mariners and others from the mouth of the Thames westwards, in favour of Nicholas Kiriel, admiral of the said ships, appointed in pursuance of the late ordinance of the council that all ships of 50 tons and over of those parts should assemble at Portsmoutb on Sunday after the Decollation of St. John the Baptist with a double equipment and that all the lords of such ships should be in them ready to execute the orders of the said admiral, and that all the lords and masters of ships of less than 50 tons should keep their ships in their ports and not go out for the purpose of fishing or any other business, until the king had made further demands to survey the master of ships of 50 tons there on that day and to bring the lords and masters thereof with their ships into the king's service, and to arrest all ships of less tonnage which he finds upon the sea, and keep the men in them in prison until further order. [Cf. Piedera.]

By K.

Protection and safe-conduct for one year for William de Montibus, merchant of le Mas-d'Agenais (de manu Aquenensi) going to the duchy [of Aquitaine] to trade.

Licence for Joan de Bohun to grant to Roger Corbet of Caus, and Amy his wife, and the heirs of the said Roger, two parts of the manor of Chaselberewe, co. Somerset, and the advowson of the church of that manor, held in chief, and the reversion of the third part thereof after the death of Joan late the wife of Alan Plukenet, who holds it in dower; and for Roger and Amy to regrant the whole for life to the said Joan. By p.s.

Aug. 15. Clarendon.

Protection and safe-conduct, for one year, for John de la Tour, merchant of the town of Besan, coming to the realm to trade; on testimony by Oliver de Ingham, seneschal of Gascony, to his good behaviour. By K.

The like for Arnold de Beyvill of Poys Guiliain of the duchy [of Aquitaine], and William his brother, coming to the realm to trade.

Aug. 15. Clarendon.

Writ of aid until Michaelmas for John Dyve, master of the king's ship called la Nicholas whom the king is sending on his business to divers parts, with power to select men for the munition of the said ship. By K.

Aug. 15. Clarendon.

Appointment of John de Sturmy, admiral of the fleet from the mouth of the Thames towards the north, to keep the scrutiny of all letters within his bailiwick. [Piedera.]

Grant for life to Henry de Dytton of a messuage and a virgate of land in Harewelle, escheats by the forfeiture of Ralph Wace, who held the same by grant of the king for life. By K.

Pardon to Peter son of William Hog of Wynested, for the death of Robert son of Walter de Waldegrave at Wynested, as it appears by the record of John de Donecastre and his fellows, justices assigned to deliver the king's gaol of York, that he killed him in self defence. By K.

Pardon of the trespass of Roger le Longe of Bow (de Arcubus), sometime citizen of London, in bequeathing in mortmain without licence of Edward I or the king, 5 marks and 40 pence of yearly and quit rent issuing, as follows:—35s. out of his capital messuage with brewhouse, which he bought of the heirs of Ralph le Spycer of the parish of St. Mary atte Bow, London, and 5s. out of a tenement in Wodestrete, which he bought from the executors and attorney of Geoffrey de Katenham and out of a tenement close by towards the north, which he bought from the son of Richard Lufchild in the parish of St. Alphage within Cripelgate, London,