MEMBRANE 18.

Licence for the prior of St. Denys by Southampton to grant to John Aungyr of Falldrabethon and Margaret his wife the manor of Bereford, held in chief, to hold for their lives, at a rent of 10 marks.

By fine of 10 marks. Wilts.

Protection for one year for William de Meret, merchant of Genoa, going to divers parts of the realm to recover goods of himself and his fellows, merchants of Genoa, lately eloenigh at Southampton.

Protection and safe-conduct for two years for Denis le Marchaunt of the island of Jernosayre, coming to the realm to trade.

Power to Robert de Welle to agree in the king’s name to a day and place, which the envoys of the king and Robert de Brus will arrange, to treat of certain things which cannot be dealt with by the keepers of the truce, and which were reserved by the said truce for the king and the said Robert or their deputies to settle. [Fœdera.]

Grant to Robert de Silkeston, king’s clerk, of the deanery of Wolverhampton.

Pardon to Anabilla de Walsale for aiding and abetting John de Billesden, who broke the prison of Warwick, and committed other felonies, and receiving him well knowing of the felony.

Protection and safe-conduct, until All Saints, for John de Cogan, king’s clerk, treasurer of Ireland, ordered by the king to hasten to Ireland and do what pertains to his office.

Mandate to John Howard, Robert de Erpyngham, and John Curzoun, arrayers in the county of Norfolk, to select 500 armed men and lead them to Erewell, co. Suffolk, by St. Matthew the Apostle, to stay there at the king’s wages for a month.

The like to the following arrayers:

Robert de Rocheford  |  Essex, 800 archers.
Thomas Gobioun
John de Tendryng  |  Suffolk, 200 armed men, and 500 archers.
Thomas de Bavent
Robert de Peyton

Appointment of Robert le Fitz Wautier, Robert de Rocheford, John Fillol and Philip de Verley, to supervise the assembly of the ships of 50 tons and over from the mouth of the Thames northwards at Erewell by the above date pursuant to the order of the king and council to the lords and masters of such ships of the ports of Herewiz, &c. co. Essex (mentioned above on m. 20).

The like, directed to the other commissioners mentioned above [m. 20] in the counties of Suffolk, Norfolk, Lincoln, York, and Northumberland, respectively.

Letters of credence in favour of Ralph de Camoys and Robert de Watevill touching the muster of ships of the northern parts at Erewell by the above date; directed to leaders of men at arms and arrayers in Essex, Norfolk and Suffolk, the sheriffs of those counties, and the admiral of the northern fleet. Et erant patentes.

Appointment of Robert de Ufford, Thomas Latymer and Richard de la Ryvere to select 12 ships in the towns of Harwich and Ipswich and their