1330. Membrane 9—cont.

divers felonies, but who has since proved his innocence before S. bishop of London, his diocesan, to whom he was delivered by virtue of the benefit of clergy.

Mandate to the sheriffs of London to cause these letters to be read in the city, the king's peace thereby granted to be publicly proclaimed, and to cause the lands and goods of the said Hamo, which had been taken into the king's hands by reason of the premises, to be restored to him.

July 24. Notification to A. archbishop of Dublin of the revocation of the late collation of Robert Power, king's clerk, to the prebend of Swerdes in the church of St. Patrick, Dublin, as the king finds that the prebend was not void at the time, but in the possession of Master Richard de Clare, king's clerk, whose estate therein has since been ratified by the king. By p.s. Supersedeas, directed to the justices of the bench in Dublin, of all proceedings depending before them by reason of the collation of the said Robert.

The like, directed to the archbishop of Dublin, of the mandate to admit the same Robert.

July 24. Grant, for life, to John de Sapy and Sibyl his wife of the knights' fees, advowsons and other appurtenances of the manor of Rudmarle, co. Worcester, whereof they have lately had a like grant. By p.s.

July 23. Grant to Geoffrey le Scrope that he shall hold the custody of the lands late of John de Orreby, tenant in chief, to which he has lately been appointed during minority of John son of Philip de Orreby, kinsman and heir of the first-named John, without rendering the extent reserved in the former grant, and pardon of so much of the same as is due for the time since he has held the custody. By K.

Membrane 8.

July 11. Licence for Henry, earl of Lancaster, to grant, for life, to John le Blount the manor of Tyberton, co. Gloucester, held in chief, excepting the advowson of the church. By p.s.

July 11. Licence for the same to grant, for life, to William le Blount "le neveu" the manor of Shulton, co. Lancaster, held in chief, excepting agistment in the park of the manor. By p.s.

July 18. John of Brittany, earl of Richmond, staying beyond seas, has letters nominating Richard de Swafham, clerk, and Thomas de Fenoces his attorneys in England until Michaelmas. By p.s.

July 18. Agnes, wife of Arnold Power, knight, staying in England, has letters nominating Henry Babbe and William Beneyt her attorneys in Ireland for two years.