

This Register derives its name from containing the statutes, rules, and orders made or compiled by S. Osmund, to be observed in the Cathedral and diocese of Salisbury.

81. Eadmeri Historia Novorum in Anglia, et opuscula duo de Vita Sancti Anselmi et quibusdam Miraculis ejus. Edited by the Rev. Martin Rule, M.A. 1884.

This Chronicle forms part of the Chartulary of the Abbey of Ramsey, preserved in the Public Record Office (see No. 79).

This edition gives that portion only of Roger of Wendover’s Chronicle which can be accounted an original authority.

The Letters printed in these volumes were chiefly written between the years 1266 and 1333. Among the most notable writers were Prior Henry of Esny, Prior Richard Oxenden, and the Archbishops Raynald and Meopham.

The date of the composition of this Chronicle is placed about the year 1306. The writer appears to have been an eye witness of many events which he describes. The language in which it is written was the dialect of Gloucestershire at that time.
