1354.

Jan. 28. Presentation of Thomas Trendel to the church of St. Mary, Westminster. Waketon, in the diocese of Norwich, in the king’s gift by reason of the lands of John de Segrawe being in his hands for certain causes.

Feb. 3. Pardon, for good service in Gascony in the company of Ralph, earl of Stafford, and at the earl’s asking, to Henry le Bere of the king’s suit for the death of Nowel de Aston, killed before 8 May last, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry.

Pardon in like terms to John Bongy, for force and aid at the death of Roger de Peshale, whom Thomas de Crowebawre killed before the said date.

Jan. 28. Grant, for life, to the king’s yeoman Thomas de Petrefeld of those tenements in the parish of St. Mary atte Hull by Billyngesgate, London, late of Alan Gille, which have escheated to the king because they are held of him and Alan died intestate and without heir. By p.s.

Feb. 3. Pardon to Richard atte Brigge of Wodhous of the king’s suit for the death of John de Hillum, bailiff of Crolle, as it appears by the record of William de Skipwyth and his fellows, justices appointed to deliver the gaol of the castle of Lincoln, that he killed him in self defence.

Feb. 3. Pardon to Robert Tylie, indicted of the death of William Wideford whom, as the king as been informed by an inquisition taken before John Everard, escheator in the county of Wils, at Donyngton, or Friday after the Purification in the twenty-seventh year, he killed in self defence, of the king’s suit for the said death and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

Feb. 7. Pardon to Hugh de Chalk, executor of the will of John Bulneys of his outlawry in the husting of London for non-appearance before the justices of the Bench to answer Adam de Bury, citizen of London touching a plea that he render to him a tally containing 50l. unjustly detained; he having now surrendered to the Flete prison as John de Stonore, chief justice, has certified.

Feb. 10. Whereas Robert de Shupton, chaplain, lately acquired in fee from John de Karlilo of Appelgarth a messuage, a toft and six bovate of land in Appelgarth and Baynton, held of the king in chief on account of the forfeiture of William de Karlilo, late an adherent of th Scots, the king’s enemies, and the said John afterwards acquired th same for life from the said Robert, and both Robert and John entere into these tenements, without the king’s licence having been obtained the king, for 60s. to be paid to him by the said John, has pardone the trespasses in this behalf and granted that the latter shall hav the same again for life, with remainders to George son of Joh Salvayn, knight (militis) and Agnes, his wife, in tail, and to the righ heirs of Agnes. And the 60s. have been paid in the hanaper.

Feb. 10. By letters patent dated 11 February, 26 Edward III, the kin granted licence for the abbot and convent of Oseney to exchang with Hamo, bishop of Rochester, the advowsons of the churches c