April 3. Whereas Oliver de Dynham enfeoffed Margaret Douedale at Westminster, John, late parson of the church of Saunford Peverel, of the manor of Saunford Peverel and Alre Peverel and the advowson of the church of Saunford Peverel, held of the king in chief, as is said, and afterwards granted the same to Joan late the wife of the said Oliver to hold to her and the heirs of the bodies of the said Oliver and he and the said Margaret and John as well as Joan entered there without having obtained the king's licence; the king, for 100s. be paid to him by Joan, has pardoned these trespasses and granted licence for her to retain the premises as above.

And the said 20s. (sic.) have been paid in the hanape because before the date of these presents they had licence to acquire the said tenements.

April 9. Appointment, during pleasure, of the king's clerk William of Eltham to have the keeping of the writs and rolls in the Common Bench; he taking in the office the usual fee. By p.

April 26. Licence, for one year, for Thomas de Kenyghale, John Fairmaid, Nicholas Edward and Richard Faukes to take to Norway and Almaine from the port of Lenne, in ships not arrested for the king's service as much malt, flour of wheat and rye, salt and woollen cloth as the shall deem expedient, to make their profit thereof, and to bring back fish and other merchandise from there to England; on condition that they find security before the mayor and bailiffs of Lenn that they will not take the same to parts at enmity with the king.

March 28. Grant, at the request of William Stury, keeper of the islands of Jereseye, Gernereye, Serk and Aureneye, that John de Shrovesbury 'flechier,' and John de Eboraco and William de Essex, his servants whom the said keeper has hired to make 500 sheaves of arrows for the munition of some castles in the said islands, shall not be compelled to serve elsewhere than for the king until the work be finished.

Richard Plunket, staying in England, has letters nominating Richard White and Robert de Kerdyf as his attorneys in Ireland for two years. David de Wollore received the attorneys.

March 10. Writ de intendendo in favour of John Lammesse of Ipswich, whom the king's yeoman John Marveys, holding for life the office of the king's alnage of woollen cloths for sale in England, with the office of controller of the subsidy to be taken on each cloth beyond the custom due thereon according to the ordinance in the last great council at Westminster, he taking from the seller of each entire cloth ½d. and each half cloth ¼d., has deputed under him, during his pleasure, to discharge the office in the counties of Suffolk and Essex.

The like for the following deputies:

May 1. Richard le Rede of Boston, in the parts of Holand, co. Lincoln. By bill of the alnager himself.