March 30. Grant, for life, to Reynold, bishop of Worcester, who has grante that he will celebrate the anniversary of the king's father at Glo cestre every year at his own charges, that he may appear by a suffi cient proctor in all parliaments, congregations, and councils summone by the king, and shall in no wise be held to appear in person. By K

April 4. Ratification of the estate of Randolf Tonsteyn as parson of th church of St. Mary du Chastel, Gerneseye.

Feb. 25. Protection, during the pleasure of John, archbishop of York, th chancellor, for John Drank of Sefford, charged by the said chancello per purvey fish for the expenses of the household of the chancery an cause the same to be carried to London, where that household is not held. By C

April 15. Whereas the king lately caused a ship of John Dreu and Wil Biteryng of Lenn, called la Nicholas of Lenn, among other ships to b rested, and caused the said John and William to be warned to fit th same out to go on his service as should be enjoined upon them, and they hired carpenters to repair the same who have run away leaving the work unfinished so that the ship cannot do him service unless be repaired; he has appointed the said John to take the said car carpenters or others in Lenne and the vicinage, and to put them to those works at reasonable wages.

April 21. Protection in London and elsewhere in the realm, until the quinzaine of Midsummer, for William de Melchebourn and Richard son of Thomas de Melchebourn, merchants, who are bound to the king in divers sums of money, and are prosecuting by his injunction divers businesses for him and themselves in the exchequer and other of his courts, on account of which prosecution they fear that they will suffer loss in respect of their bodies and their things by some rivals; and for their lands, things, rents and goods.

April 17. Pardon to Richard Fraunceys of Bernyston, indicted of robberies and on that account outlawed, of the said outlawry; on condition that he stand his trial if the king of any other will speak against him of the robberies.

April 29. Presentation of John de Kendale, parson of the church of Wode-bergh, in the diocese of Salisbury, to the vicarage of the church of Leuesham, in the diocese of Rochester, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities in England of the abbot of Ghent, an alien, being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with the king's clerk, Thomas de Tweng.

April 30. Protection with clause nolumus, for one year, in consideration of the many subsidies granted to the king by the clergy, for William de Wardehowe, parson of the church of Barton in Rydale.

May 1. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Edmund de Hemgrave to the warden and college of the scholars of the hall of the Annunciation of St. Mary of the university of Cambridge of the advowson