1354.

June 18. Licence to elect for the prior and convent of Abbotesbury, Westminster. signification to the king by letters patent of R. bishop of Salisbury, that the abbey is void by the cession of Walter de Stoke, last abb of the said place.

By

May 8. Grant to the abbot and convent of Buldewas of pontage for three years to repair the bridge of the town of Buldewas. By

June 20. Writ of aid for William de Letecombe, charged by Queen Philipp to hire six carpenters, four sawyers, four stonemasons, four tile three plasterers and their servants and other workmen and artifices necessary for the repair of the houses and walls of the manor of Banstede; and to take carriage for timber and stone for the work to be paid for by the queen according to the ordinance thereof made by the king and council.

By

June 20. Whereas the king by letters patent under the seal which he used in Ireland committed to Thomas Folejambe the keeping of the war of the castle of Dublin, during pleasure, with the accustomed fees so that he render account at the exchequer of Dublin of the king's moneys which he shall receive on the works; he, accepting the same grant, grants that Thomas shall hold the said office pursuant thereto.

By

June 18. Grant to the king's yeoman Nicholas de la Despense, for long service to the king and his son Edmund, of 10l. yearly beyond the 20l. by the hands of the sheriff of the counties of Nottingham and Derby lately granted to him by letters patent, to be taken out of the issue of the said counties for life or until the king provide him with land of the value of 30l. yearly for life.

MEMBRANE 23.

June 6. Protection and safe conduct, for one year, for John de Aldenardo monk of the Cistercian order, proctor and domestic (commensalem, chaplain of William, bishop of Tusculum, a cardinal, who came to England on business affecting the cardinal and the said order, and is now returning to parts beyond seas with three horses, grooms, harness things and his expenses in gold and silver. By April 20. Whereas Robert More, William White, Ellis de Preston and John Dyere of Droghda lately brought 18½ lasts of hides, and John Talon and John Forester of Droghda brought 17 lasts, 15 dicker of hides as well their own hides as hides of other merchants of Ireland, in ships of Spain from the port of Droghda, where they paid the customs due, to the port of Suthampton, to be brought thence to the staple of Winchester according to the ordinance and there sold; and whereas afterwards, at the suit of those merchants suggesting that the hides could be sold in Ireland much dearer than in the said staple or elsewhere in England, and that if they were compelled to sell in the said staple they would incur no small loss, the king gave them licence to carry the same to Flanders to make their profit of them there, notwithstanding the ordinance of the staple; for their security he by these presents notifies the premises to all bailiffs and others. 