Aug. 19. Rockingham. Grant, for life, at the request of the king’s mother, Queen Isabel, to Nicholas Poumart and Agnes, his wife, of 10l. yearly of the fees of the town of Bedeford, by the hands of the mayor and bailiffs, the same manner as Margery de Romeseye, deceased, used to take the same.

Aug. 26. Westminster. Presentation of William Lorkyn, chaplain, to the church of Michael, Warham, in the diocese of Salisbury, in the king’s gift, reason of the priory of Warham being in his hands on account of the war with France.

He has letters nominating Hugh de Aston and Richard de Fyfhyc as his attorneys in England for the same time.

Thomas de Brayton received the attorney.

He has like letters nominating David de Wollore and Thomas d Brayton as above. The chancellor received the attorneys.

Aug. 18. Westminster. Protection for William Gryme of York, chaplain, in prosecuting divers businesses of his in the king’s courts and elsewhere in the realm and returning home again; and for his men, lands, things and goods.

Sept. 3. Westminster. Presentation of William de Artureth, chaplain, to the vicarage of the church of Artureth, in the diocese of Carlisle, void by the resignation of Master William de Ragenhill; to which church it pertains to the bishop of Carlisle to nominate a parson to be presented by the king, as is said.

Aug. 28. Westminster. Whereas Margaret de Norton was lately convicted before Henry Grene and William de Skipwyth, justices appointed to deliver the gaol of the castle of Lincoln, of counterfeiting the king’s money and on that account was adjudged to death, and whereas, because she was then pregnant, execution of that judgement was suspended and she was remitted until she had given birth and could undergo the said judgement; the king, at the supplication of his daughter Isabel, has pardoned her.

By p.s.

Whereas the servants of William Lengleys, ‘chivaler,’ would have arrested Robert de Hotwayt, whom they lately found by night in the castle of Hegheved, co. Cumberland, lying with the wife of the said William, and he in resisting them was killed, for whose death William de Helton has been indicted: the king, at the request of Edward de Sancto Johanne and because he has testified that the said Robert was killed in this way, has pardoned William de Helton the suit of the peace which pertains to the king for the death and any consequent outlawry.
