

1355.

Membrane 15—cont.

and whereas the king has now for certain causes commanded the said justices to stay the process before them in the Bench against the said John because of his said mandates; for the security of the said John and his executors he has pardoned to him the contempt as well as the pain of 1000*l.* and whatever pertains to him in the premises. By K.

July 4. Protection, for two years, for John Marchal of Kardoill, John Westminster. de Dundrawe, Patrick Baxtere, William Sly, John Purs, Thomas Cok, Nicholas de Tykehill and Richard Ecroft, going to divers towns in England situated on the sea and elsewhere to buy fish and other things for sale and to divers parts to sell the same to the king's people.

June 30. Pardon to Adam atte Wolde, clerk, of his outlawry in the husting Westminster. of London for non-appearance before the justices of the Bench to answer Maud daughter of John de Dene touching a plea that he render an account of the time when he was her receiver; he having now surrendered to the Flete prion, as Roger Hillary, chief justice, has certified.

July 7. Whereas in the time of the last truce with France Richard Spynk Westminster. [of Norwich, in the p.s.] bought at Amiens 16 tuns of woad (waide) and 520 stones of woad (wolde) [which he left there in the hand of his host, marked with the mark of the merchants from whom he bought the same, to bring to Flanders, in the p.s.] and the same merchandise was taken by men of Dover and Calais in two ships of Flanders sailing towards Flanders as goods of the king's enemies marked with their marks, and afterwards, when suit was made by the said Richard in the king's court before the constable of Dover, warden of the Cinque Ports, for restitution of the woad, it was adjudged that the same was forfeit to the king, because found marked with the marks of his enemies and not with the mark of Richard, and that the latter had incurred a contempt against the king for this cause; the king of special grace has pardoned the contempt and given back the woad to the said Richard. By p.s. [22851.]

July 8. Pardon to Robert son of John de Tydde, constable of Tydde, of Westminster. the king's suit for the death of Richard son of Aliland de Acres of Tydde; as the king has learned by the record of Henry Grene and William de Skipwith, justices appointed to deliver the king's gao of the castle of Lincoln, that he killed him in self defence.

July 8. Pardon, for 100 marks to be paid to the king by Theobald Trussel Westminster. son and heir of William Trussel, and tenant of some lands late of the said William, to the said Theobald of all accounts and arrears of accounts and all debts at the exchequer of the late or present king attermind and not attermind, required by summons of the exchequer of the said Theobald, and the heirs, the pledges, mainpernor and terretenants of the same William, or which could be required at the exchequer of the king's heirs. Pardon to him also of the king's suit for all oppressions and extortions, unlawful assemblies of men at arms, conspiracies, grievances and trespasses of vert and venison as well as all other trespasses, disseisins by force, whereof he has been convicted, and all fines, ransoms, amercements for the same and whatever pertains to the king in this behalf. By K.