Dec. 1. Grant to the king's mother Queen Isabel of the king's prise of Westminster. wines in the port of Lenné, for three years from this date. By p.s.

Nov. 6. Whereas Philip de Depyng, chaplain, is indicted of having with others, on Saturday the feast of St. Margaret the Virgin, in the twenty-seventh year, at Huntynghdon, rescued Richard de Dalton, who had been adjudged to death before Robert de Thorpe and his fellows, justices appointed to deliver the gaol of Huntynghdon, and delivered to the king's bailiffs for execution of the judgement, from the said bailiffs, and put him in the burying ground of the church of St.
Andrew, in the same town, whereby they could not make execution of the judgement; the king of his special grace has pardoned the said Richard the suit of his peace and whatever pertains to the king in the premises and any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

Dec. 2. Exemption, for life, of Nicholas de Wycombe from being put on Westminster. assizes, juries or recognitions, and from appointment as mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner or other bailiff or minister of the king against his will. By p.s.

Dec. 7. Licence, for 5 marks to be paid to the king by Thomas de Langele, Westminster. 'chivaler,' for him to enfeoff Geoffrey, vicar of the church of 'Shipton under Wicchewode,' and Walter, vicar of the church of Boreford, of the manor of Langele and 60 acres of land in Langele, held of the king in chief, and for them to grant the same to him and Alice, his wife, in survivorship, with remainders to John son of the same Thomas, in tail male, to Peter brother of the said John, in tail male, and to Simon brother of the said Peter, in tail male, and remainder over to the right heirs of the said Thomas.

And the 5 marks have been paid in the hanaper.

Nov. 29. Grant, for life, to the king's eldest daughter Isabel of the castle, Westminster. lordship and honour of Caresbrok, and the manors and towns of Bouecombe, Wroxhale, Neuton, Panne, Neuport and Ermuth, Isle of Wight, with the knights' fees, advowsons, parks, woods, warrens, fisheries, liberties, free customs and other appurtenances; grant to her also of 20l. of rent due by William de Dale for the manor of Whitefeld, with the liberty and leet of the town of Brerdyng, demised to the said William for life, and the reversions of the said manor with the liberty and leet and of the manor of Thorneye, in the same island, after the demise of the said William, to hold as fully as the king or any of his progenitors or any other ever held.
Grant to her further of all wards and escheats of tenants of the castle, lordship, honour, manors and towns falling in. If any one after the king's death eject or remove her from the premises or hinder her from enjoying the same for life let him incur the curse of Almighty God, of our Lord Jesus Christ and of the grantor. By p.s.

Appointment of John de Kynegson, clerk, guardian of the lands in the Isle of Wight lately reserved to the king's chamber, and John de Estbury to deliver the premises to her.

Mandate to the tenants of the lands to be intendant unto her, Mandate to William de Dale to answer to her for the rent,
