Mandate to the dean of the chapel to admit him and to cause a stall in the choir to be assigned him by reason of the prebend.

The like collations of prebends in the chapel to the following:—

John de Bukyngham.
Roger de Chestrefeld.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by William Trussebut to the prior and convent of Newstead in Shirewod of the advowson of the church of Babbeworth, co. Nottingham, which is taxed at 20l. as is said; and for the appropriation of the church by the prior and convent.

By p.s.

Pardon, at the request of Henry, duke of Lancaster, and for good service done by Thomas Crispyn of Elsham in his company in Gascony, of the king's suit for homicides, felonies, robberies and firings, also for coming to the house of Nicholas Hustwait of Burton Stather, which he would have burned if the said Nicholas had not made fine with him, and all other trespasses done by him in England before 17 August, in the twenty-first year; and of any consequent outlawries.

Renewed because sealed at another time by K. on the information of the duke.

Grant to the king's yeoman Richard de Clopton of an annuity of 100s. at the exchequer, for life or until the king order otherwise for his estate.

Vacated because surrendered as appears on the Patent Roll of the thirty-fifth year in the month of October.

Grant to the king's serjeant at arms Thomas Durant of the keeping of the manor of Cleyndon, co. Kent, to hold during the nonage of the heir of Laurence de Hastynges, late earl of Pembroke, tenant in chief, without rendering anything to the king.

Vacated because otherwise below.

Joan de Barz, countess of Warenne, staying beyond seas, has letters nominating William, bishop of Winchester, and Michael, bishop of London, as her attorneys in England until Midsummer next.

David de Wollore received the attorneys. She has like letters nominating Hugh, prior of Lewes, and David de Wollore, clerk, as above. The chancellor received the attorneys.

Grant, for good service done by Bartholomew de Burghersh, now deceased, to his daughter Joan of the keeping of the manor of Ewelme, co. Oxford, late of John de Burghersh, tenant in chief, to hold during the nonage of his heir with all things pertaining to the keeping without rendering anything to the king, so that she find sustenance for the heir; saving to the king the marriage of the heir and the advowson of the church of the manor.

By K.

Licence for Roger de Mortuo Mari, earl of March, to grant for life to Ralph Spigurnel 100 marks yearly of land and rent in England, Wales or the march of Wales, held in chief.