to the king after the death of Robert as an escheat because Margare died without heir of herself, shall remain to Alan del Strothre an the heirs male of his body. By p.s.

March 6. Licence, for the king’s affection for St. Cuthbert, whose venerabL body is buried in the church within the priory of Durham, and fo the relief of the priory, which is of the foundation of the king’s pro ponents and of his patronage, the possessions of which being for the most part by the march of Scotland and in Scot land are as it were totally destroyed and wasted by the Scots, and so the priory is goriously decayed in its faculties, which the king bears ill, for the prior and convent to appropriate the church of Hemmyngburgh in the diocese of York, of their advowson and held of the king in chief. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 14.

March 11. Pardon to Henry son of Roger Underwode, indicted of aiding in the death of Richard son of Robert Bydulf and Stephen son of Robert Bydulf, who being then of the age of twelve years was in the company of his father when they were killed and lent no aid to this, of the king’s suit touching the premises and any consequent outlawry; granted at the supplication of Ralph, earl of Stafford, who has tested to the truth hereof, and for good service done by the said Henry in divers of the king’s wars in the earl’s company. By p.s.

March 26. Inspeximus of letters patent of John Darcy, ‘le piere,’ deceased dated at the Tower of London, on 24 May, 21 Edward III, granting for life to his servant Robert de Hedelham the keeping of his park, wood and warren, of Kirkeby in Asshefeld, with 2d. a day for the keeping out of the issues of the said manor; and confirmation of the same notwithstanding that the lands of the said John are now in the king’s hands on account of the death of John Darcy, ‘le fitz,’ tenant in chief, and the nonage of his son. By p.s.

March 27. Grant to the burgesses and good men of Huntyngdon of pontage for three years for repair of their bridge. By p.s.

March 28. Writ of aid, for one year, for Daniel de Rouclif and William Cok, servants of John, archbishop of York, the chancellor, appointed by him to purvey corn and other victuals in the county of Lincoln and have them brought to London in a ship called la Nicolas of Barton for the expenses of the household of the chancery.

March 26. Protection for Simon de Bevyngton, citizen of London, and his goods and merchandise; and exemption of him for life from being put on assizes, jurys, inquisitions or recognitions in the city of London or elsewhere, or before the stewards and marshals of the household, barons of the exchequer or justices, and from appointment as mayor, sheriff, alderman, butler, escheator, coroner, customer, taxer or collector of wool, tenths, fifteenths or other aids or subsidies, or other bailiff or minister of the king, against his will. By p.s.