1356.

said Geoffrey at Parva Lymbergh out of a messuage and a small portion of land, the value of which messuage and land does not in modern times suffice for the reasonable sustenance of a chaplain, the king has granted licence for them, for the surer maintenance of that chantry, to assign in mortmain land and rent, not held in chief, to the value of 4l. yearly to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily at the said chantry for the king and his heirs, and the said Hugh and Geoffrey and others according to the ordinance of Geoffrey.

By p.s.

July 7. Licence, for 20s. paid to the king by Geoffrey Fitz Eustace, for the alienation in mortmain by him to the Friars Preachers who are to dwell at Le Naaz, co. Kildare, Ireland, of 12 acres of land in Le Naaz, for them to build thereon a church and houses for their habitation.

And the 20s. have been paid in the hanaper.

July 20. Appointment of John de Kyngesdon, clerk, and the mayor of Corfe Westminster. to survey the king's castle of Corfe and the houses thereof, and repair all defects therein to the sum of 30l. and to take timber, iron, lead, lime and other necessaries and carriage for the same, as well as carpenters, masons and other workmen for the work, taking and imprisoning those whom they find rebellious herein.

By bill of the treasurer.

July 22. Ratification of the estate of Nicholas Fitz Patrick as parson of the church of Clungell, in the diocese of Meath, by the collation of Nicholas, now bishop of Meath; that he be not disturbed by reason of any right which the king could have because Thomas, late bishop of Meath, acquired the adowson of the said church contrary to the form of the statute of mortmain.

By K.

July 22. Presentation of Ralph de Idebury, parson of the church of St. Westminster. Westminster. Edmund the King, Lumbardstreet, London, to the church of St. Peter, Berkhampstede, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the priory of Wilmyngton being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with Master Philip de Legh.

MEMBRANE 13.

July 10. Pardon to William de Rothewell, ‘skynner,’ indicted by the name of William de Rothewell, ‘skynner,’ who used to dwell in the town of Derteford, of having about All Saints in the twenty-eighth year, at Strode, ravished Maud wife of William Lenegor of Strode, and taken her away with goods of the said William, to wit cloths of linen and of wool, brooches and rings of gold and silver, jewels and 10 marks in money by tale, and of having furthermore threatened to kill any one of the said town he met and fire the town, and of having about Michaelmas in the said year assaulted Pernell wife of John Tripes at Derteford, and of being a common beater of men and disturber of the peace, indicted also by the name of William Skynner of Derteford of having on Thursday after Martinmas in the town of Strode ravished the said Maud and abducted her by her own will to the damage of the said William Lenegor of 100s. and of having on Martinmas in the said year abducted her with goods of the said William, and of having