Membrane 14—cont.

1356.

Lismore and Waterford being poorly endowed with faculties and rents, whenever a voidance occurred in either church they should be united in one and the surviving bishop should be bishop of both churches. The bishopric of Lismore being now vacant by the death of the bishop, the said Roger has come to the king praying for such restitution and the king has taken his fealty and made restitution accordingly.

Nov. 17. In relief of the state of the priors and convents of Sempyngham, Westminster. Malton and Chikesond, the king has pardoned to the first 10l. 3s. 11d. to the second 21l. and to the third 18l. 16s. 4d. their portions of the last tenth granted to the king by the clergy. By p.s.

Nov. 21. Protection with clause rogamus, for two years, for Adrian, warden of the house of Writele, a cell of the hospital of the Holy Ghost at Rome, attorney of the master and brethren of the said hospital, pursuant to an indult of the pope to the said master and brethren to collect alms in churches once a year, and for other attorneys as he shall substitute for himself.

Nov. 24. Whereas Queen Philippa, with the king's assent and licence, has sold the hall of the manor of Feckenham to the abbot of Evesham and he has thrown down that hall to carry it thence whither he will; the king, for the greater security of the abbot grants that he shall not be impeached or disturbed at any future time by the king or his ministers on account of the throwing down and carrying away of the hall. By p.s.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by William de Fifhide to the prior and convent of Suthwyk of a messuage and 16 acres of land in Portesmuth, held of the king in burgage. By p.s.

Nov. 26. Licence, for two years, for William son of Adam de Lyverpull and Ralph de Stansfeld to ship in the port of Lyverpull in the duchy of Lancaster 300 quarters of corn and take the same to the parts of Fournex in the same duchy, Cupeland and elsewhere in England, to make their profit thereof, on their finding security before the mayor and bailiffs of the town that they will take the corn to no other parts. By C.

Nov. 21. Licence, for 4 mark to be paid to the king by William de Whatton of Stok, parson of the church of Gyselham, for the alienation in mortmain by William de Burstall, parson of the church of Farnham, and John de Cotyngton the younger, parson of the church of Beyton, to him of a messuage in Gyselham for the enlargement of the manse of the rectory of his church.

Nov. 25. Grant to William de Feriby of the archdeaconry of Clyveland in the church of St. Peter, York, in the king's gift by reason of the late voidance of the archbishopric of York. Mandate in pursuance to J. archbishop of York.

Nov. 26. Pardon, at the request of Queen Isabel, to William de Dunstaple, prior of the church of St. Mary, Coventre, William de Sheynton, John de Southam, John de Barsham, Adam de Craft and Robert de
