1358.

March 20. Westminster. Licence, until Midsummer, for John Wroth of London and Geoffrey de Pordeleye or their attorneys to ship in the port of Great Yarmouth and take to Holland and Zeeland to make their profit of 100 quarters of rye which they caused to be brought to England from Estland, but which cannot be sold there at a profit, as they assert, and 200 quarters of wheat and oats bought by them in the realm. By C.

March 16. Westminster. Grant to John le Reve of Acton, Thomas Fairsyre of Acton and Ellis Waleys of Woexbrugge of pavage for five years to be taken at Woexbrugge and Acton and elsewhere in the king’s highway between the said towns and elsewhere thereon as shall be expedient to repair the same between the two towns and as far as the city of London, to be laid out by the supervision and disposition of Geoffrey de Aston and Thomas de Brakenburgh of London. By C.

Feb. 8. Westminster. Licence for the abbess and convent of Romeseye to assign a plot of land out of the west part of their garden in Edyndon, 7½ perches long and 2 perches wide, with a water-course from the head of the stank called Le Horspol, and a moiety of an acre of land in the same town, and another plot of land there between the rectory and the churchyard, 16 perches long and 11 feet wide, held of the king in chief as parcel of the temporalities of the abbey, and for John de Edyndon, the elder, to assign a messuage and 1 acre, 10 perches, of land in the same town, sometime of Walter Michel, which are held of the abbess and convent as of the manor of Edyndon, parcel of the said temporalities, to the warden and chaplains of the chantry in the prebendal church, which they hold appropriated, founded by William de Edyndon, bishop of Winchester, to hold in frank almoine for the enlargement of their manse and the churchyard of their said church. Licence further, at the request of the bishop, for the warden and chaplains to enclose and build on a plot of land of the highway in Edyndon adjoining their manse, 16 perches, 6 feet long, and 10 feet wide, for the enlargement of the manse, and hold the same in frank almoine, provided that they make on their own soil another way of the same length and width for public use.

March 8. Westminster. Presentation of John Cace, vicar of the church of Preston, in the diocese of Salisbury, to the vicarage of Frompton, in the same diocese, in the king’s gift by reason of the priory of Frompton being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with John atte Vorde.

March 10. Westminster. Pardon, at the asking of Edward, prince of Wales, and for good service to the king and the prince done by Nicholas de la Chaumbre of Stortford in the latter’s company in Gascony, to the said Nicholas, indicted of having stolen by night a horse of John le Cartere, worth 13s. 4d. at Stortford and a horse of Walter de Thorle, worth 5s. at Thorle, and robbed John, parson of the church of Tillebury by Clare, at Stortford of 100s. in gold and silver, and of being a common thief and of having broken the house of John Humfrey at Whitecolne and robbed the said John of gold and silver to the value of 60s. and of having broken the house of John Payn at Bures and robbed him of 6 bushels of beans, worth 4s. 4d. and 4 bushels of oats, worth 2s. and of having broken the house of William Palfreyman, brother of