
March 30. King's Langley. Grant, for life, to John Gardener of the bailiwick of the warrenership of St. Albans, to hold in the same manner as William de la Marche deceased, held of the king's gift. By p.s. Vacated because surrendered, as appears in the memorandum following:—

Memorandum that these letters were surrendered by the said John at the suit of the abbot and convent of St. Albans before the council, shewing to the king that neither the said William de la Marche nor any other held the bailiwick of the king's gift but the same remained in their hands to keep by a bailiff deputed by them, because it is not found by search of the rolls of the chancery or examination of men of the country called before the council for this on the petition of the said John that any king granted the bailiwick to any one and John had nothing to say or shew for the king's right in this behalf; saving the king's right in all things.

April 3. King's Langley. Presentation of John de Trosle, vicar of the church of Wombourn, in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield, to the chapel of Bekkbury, in the diocese of Hereford, to which it pertains to Thomas de Lowe to nominate a parson to be presented by the king by reason of the priory of Wenlok being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with Roger, parson of the said chapel.

March 6. Westminster. On the petition of Walter Curteys of Ipswich shewing that when the king was last in Scotland with his army petitioner was spoiled of the anchors, cables and other fittings of his ship called la Maudaleyne bringing victuals for the refreshment and sustenance of the army, at Erth by Ediniburgh, the king, in recompense of his losses thus sustained in his service, has granted licence for the said Walter or his servants to take 150 quarters of wheat from the port of Ipswich to make his profit of in Holland or Zeeland. By K.

Licence for Thomas le Maister of Ipswich, in recompense of like losses in respect of his ship called la George, when in the king's service for the passage of his kinsman Philip de Navarre to Normandy, to take 60 quarters of wheat as above.

Licence for Richard Haverlond of Ipswich, in consideration of the loss of his ship called la Nicholas, laden at Bordeaux with wines for London, at sea in the entry of the port of Sandwich, to take 100 quarters of wheat as above.

Feb. 12. Westminster. Pardon to Robert Wyvel of Kyrketon of his outlawry in the county of Surrey for non-appearance before the justices of the Bench to answer John Brystowe touching a plea that he and others render 12d. to him; he having now surrendered to the Flete prison, as Robert de Thorpe, chief justice, has certified.

March 5. Westminster. Presentation of Richard de Broklesbourn, vicar of the church of Hilton, in the diocese of Bath and Wells, to the church of Padesworth,
