1358.

April 16. Licence, for 2 marks paid to the king by Hugh Carles, for Roger de la Ware, 'chivaler,' to grant to the said Hugh the manor of Albrithton, co. Salop, which is held of the king in chief, to hold for life at the rent of 20l. yearly, with reversion to Roger and his heirs.

Westminster.

April 10. Grant in frank almoni to the prior and Friars Preachers of Childerlangele of the head of a stream of water in Abboteslangele, which the king had of the gift and feoffment of William Brekspere, for the construction of an underground conduit thence to his manse. Licence also for them to construct such conduit through the king's soil as well as the soil of others, with the licence, however, of those interested.

King's Langley.

April 16. Whereas the king, by letters patent, lately granted to the president and convent of monks of the Cistercian order in his newly founded free chapel of St. Mary Graces by the Tower of London, in aid of the sustenance of him and monks to stay with him there, 20l. yearly at the exchequer, and the president has gathered together five monks to stay with him in the chapel to celebrate divine service continually; the king, perceiving that there is insufficient provision for the estate of five monks in food and raiment out of the 20l. and desiring to augment the divine worship there, ordains that a seventh monk be speedily joined to the six in the said chapel and grants to the president, now called abbot, and the six monks 40 marks yearly beyond the said 20l. yearly at the exchequer to be taken to them and their successors until other order be made for their sustenance.

By p.s.

Westminster.

March 6. The like, until Michaelmas, for brother John de Barro, monk of Clairvaux in France, of the same order, sent to Ireland by brother Bernard, his abbot, to make a visitation of their daughter houses and cells and all other monasteries of the order in that land.

Westminster.

April 10. Grant to the prior and Friars Preachers of Childerlangele, in aid of their sustenance, of the fishery of the king's water of Childerlangele, to hold for ever by any services due. Licence also for them and their successors to have a weir in the said water by the king's park of Childerlangele and free entrance and exit through the middle of the park in going from their manse to the water and weir, and returning, and beyond this another way 40 feet wide through the middle of the park for them and their men on foot, horses and carts, from their manse to their garden and meadow by the parish church of Childerlangele, to bring victuals, fuel and their other things to their said manse and elsewhere as they will.

King's Langley.

By p.s.