1858. 3 parts of a messuage in Gategrave, expectant on the demise of Richard de Valcynz, and 4 acres of marsh in the same town, expectant on the demise of Richard Osbern. The premises are not held of the king, and are of the value of £1s. as has been found by inquisition made by Guy de Seyntcler, late escheator in the county of Suffolk.

May 14. Licence, for 20s. paid to the king by John Freyull, knight, for Westminster. Hugh Fitz Simond, knight, and Margaret, his wife, mother of the said John, to surrender to the latter the manor of Caxton, held of the king in chief, which Hugh and Margaret hold for her life of the inheritance of the said John, to hold to him and his heirs.

May 13. Commission to Roger de Bello Campo, Queen Philippa's steward Westminster. William de Cheston, receiver of her exchequer, and John de Blockele and John de Gosebourn, auditors of her accounts, to receive fines from all who will make fine before them with the queen for any thing or cause whereof they are disturbed or impeached by the rolls of accounts, or by the scrutiny lately made by John de Molyns, 'chivaler,' and Richard de Cressevill, clerk, or by the sessions of her justices or stewards of the whole time of the said queen before the date of these presents, and, if necessary, to grant terms of payment of such fines and of arrears of the accounts, and to remit in the whole or in part the same fines and arrears having regard to the poverty of those from whom they are required.

By K. with the queen's assent, on the information of the said Roger.

May 12. Whereas the king, by several letters patent granted for life to Westminster. Richard de la Vache (1) 20l. yearly at the exchequer, (2) 20 marks yearly at the exchequer in addition to the first sum, (3) an assignment of the said sums out of the farm paid by the proctor of the abbot of St. Nicholas-lez-Angers for lands in the county of Buckingham, (4) 100 marks yearly at the exchequer, and (5) in lieu of last grant 59l. of the farm of the priory of Newton Lungevill and 11 marks 6s. 8d. of the residue of the 100 marks of the farm of the lands of the said alien abbot in England; at the request of the said Richard and on surrender by him of all the said letters patent he has granted to him for life, in lieu of the said sums which amount in the whole to 100l. yearly, the castle of Bolsovre, co. Derby, as of the value of 40l. yearly, 10l. of the farm due from William de Bohun, earl of Northampton and his heirs for the manor of Arnall in Shirwode forest, and the remaining 50l. at the exchequer. By p.s.

May 14. Appointment of William Denys, carpenter, to take timber for the making of the king's ships and carriage for the timber for the king's moneys to be paid by the hands of the king's clerk Matthew de Torkeseye, clerk of the said ships; to take also sufficient carpenters for the making of the ships; and to arrest and imprison until further order all persons found contrariant or rebellious herein. By K.

Membrane 14.

Feb. 26. Pardon, for good service done by Richard son of Walter de Westminster. Aclynngton of the county of Northumberland in the munition of the