Exemption, for life, of William de Plumpton, knight, from being put in assizes, juries or recognitions, and from appointment as mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner or other bailiff or minister of the king, against his will.

By p.s.

Whereas Robert de Clynton sold to the king a fourth part of the ransom of the archbishop (sic) of Le Mans, a prisoner lately taken in the battle at Poyters, for 1000l. the king in recompence of 400 marks of the 1000l. remitted to him by the said Robert has granted him for life the manors of Kildroght and Kilmacridok, co. Kildare, and Lyuekan, and a mill called Loterelesmyll, co. Dublin, late of Thomas de Rokeby, 'luncle,' justiciary of Ireland, which are in the king's hands for certain causes, saving knights' fees and advowsons of churches. If any part of the premises be recovered out of the hands of the said Robert, the king will make good his loss out of the manors of Newcastle Lyouns or Cromelyn, co. Dublin. [Fœdera.] By p.s.

Thomas de Shirley, knight, going to the Holy Land on pilgrimage, has letters nominating Hugh Gurmond, vicar of the church of Etyndon, as his attorney in England for one year.

William de Peek, clerk, received the attorney by writ.

William de Feraris, 'chivaler,' staying in England, has letters nominating John de Troye, clerk, and Robert de Bradenham as his attorneys in Ireland for two years.

William de Burgh, clerk, received the attorneys.

Peter de Okebourn and John Benet as his attorneys in Ireland, for two years.

William de Newenham received the attorneys.

He also has letters nominating Master John de Brunham, clerk, and Peter Wakefeld as above.

William de Newenham, &c.

Licence, for 10s. paid to the king by Richard Ardern of Staunford, for the said Richard to enfeoff John Taverner of Staunford and Sarra, his wife, of a messuage in Staunford, held of the king in chief.

John Tirrell, staying in England, has letters nominating Robert son of Roger Tirrell and Gerald son of Warin Tirrell as his attorneys in Ireland for one year. David de Wollore received the attorneys.

Lambert de Paulesholt, parson of the church of Bishopston and prebendary of Chalk in the church of St. Edith, Wilton, going on pilgrimage to the shrines (limina) of the Apostles Peter and Paul, has letters nominating Walter de Perle and Robert de Bridport as his attorneys in England for one year.

Ellis de Grymesby received the attorneys.

Notification to avert suspicion that a man of the city of London of malice lately conceived against Thomas de Ledbury, in his anger without any cause or fault of the said Thomas, atrociously and inhumanly cut off his left ear.